CALLS FOR MORE AMERICAN TROOPS FOR CHINA SERVICE

Minister Calhoun Appeals to General Bell at Manilla and Large Force Will be Dispatched at Once.

Washington, March 6.—American Minister Calhoun has called upon Major General Bell at Manilla for more American troops for China service General Bell has informed the was department and it is expected that he will dispatch the remaining battation of the 15th infantry numbering about 700 men to Tien Tsin at once.

Regarding the conditions in north China, Minister Calhoun has reported that British missionaries in Chih-Li province have been attacked and that native Christians in the province of Shantung have been massacred.

MISSIONARY IS MURDERED.

Pekin, China, March 6.—A missionary named F. Day, belonging to the church of England Mission, and attached to the district of Pao-Ting-Fu, was killed today by mutinous Chinese soldiers.

Mr. Day, Bishop Charles P. Scott, of the North China diocese, and another missionary, F. S. Hughes, were making a regular tour of the mission stations in the vicinity of Pao-Ting-Fu. Arriving at Tien-Chwang-Ying Bishop Scott sent Day and Hughes to Chin-Chow to fetch letters. The two missionaries found mutinous soldiers sacking the town. These commandered the missionaries' cars and on the missionaries attempting to take them Mr. Day was killed. Mr. Hughes took refuge in the town hall, where he remains.

A British attache from the legation here accompanied by a detachment of eight British soldiers, left this morning for Chin-Chow to rescue Mr. Hughes.

FOREIGN TROOPS TO PATROL.

Tien Tsin, China, March 6.—The commanders of the foreign detachments stationed here, at a meeting yesterday, elaborated a scheme for the joint patrolling of the city when such a measure is found to be necessary. The Japanese troops who arrived last night from Manchuria have taken up their quarters in the city.

The Chinese authorities, it is reported, have requested the immediate dispatch of Chinese troops to Tien Tsin to maintain order here. It may be regarded, however, as absolutely certain that the commander of the detachments of foreign troops will not allow Chinese reinforcements to approach within seven miles of Tien Tsin and will not permit the terms of the protocol in regard to the foreign concessions to be broken in any way.

The workers on the railroad at Hsin-Ho between Tien Tsin and the coast, at which place there are large stores, have appealed for protection. A steamer coming up the river reported that Chinese troops had been seen crossing the river in that neighborhood.

The United States consul here urges the concentration of the American troops at present engaged in guarding the railway between Tang-Shan and Lanchau in the city of Tien Tsin.

DOGS KILL THIRTY SHEEP.

JOHN MITCHELL REFUSES PROMISE

Labor Leader in Contempt Case Will Not Pledge Future Conduct.

TAKES MANLY STAND

Washington, March 6.—John Mitchell, vice president of the American Federation of Labor today declined to give to Judge Wright, of the district supreme court, any assurance that he expected "Hereafter to lend adherence to the decrees of the judicial tribuals of the land."

To do so, he declared, would be an admission that he had heretofore failed to comply with lawful decrees. Mr. Mitchell said he had rather be convicted of contempt than be acquitted on any other ground than the facts in the case.

Mr. Mitchell's Letter.

Mr. Mitchell's letter to the court follows:

"Judge Wright.

"Sir: At the close of my cross examination in the contempt proceedings instituted against Mr. Gompers, Mr. Morrison and me, the court stated that I was free at any time before these proceedings closed to give expression to the court either orally or in written communication upon the subject of the following recommendations:

" 'The court strongly recommends that you consider again the propriety of acquainting the court before these proceedings close with your conviction whether you ought, and whether you expect, hereafter to lend adherence to the decrees of the judicial tribunals of the land in matters committed by law to their jurisdiction and power.'

"I have given the court's recommendation careful thought and serious consideration, as a result of which I desire to say that I believe that a statement by me that I expect hereafter to lend adherence to the decrees of the judicial tribunals of the land would be subject to no other interpretation than that I have heretofore failed or refused to comply with the lawful decrees of the court, and that my evidence in this proceeding was not truthful and sincere and in keeping with the facts in the case.

Stands by His Testimony.

"I am not willing to make an statement that would impugn my own testimony. I am not willing by any device or subterfuge to attempt to deceive the court or secure an acquittal by any other means than those of the evidence and the truthfulness of my testimony.

"Indeed, I should feel more contentment if convicted, conscious of the rectitude of my course, and the truthfulness of my evidence, than if acquitted on any other ground than the facts as they have been presented to the court and the law as it has been enunciated by the higher tribunal.

"Yours respectfully,
"JOHN MITCHELL."

SERIOUS CHARGE AGAINST WOMEN

Leaders of London Suffragettes Face Prosecution for Conspiracy and are Held Without Bail.

London, March 6.—Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Pethick Lawrence, joint editors of Votes for Women, who were arrested last night, and Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurts and Mrs. Tuke, the last two of whom were brought from Holloway jail were arraigned at Bow street police court this morning on a charge of conspiracy and inciting to commit malicious damage to property.

Miss Christabel Pankhurst, who was erroneously reported to have been arrested last night was included in the charge, but she has disappeared and thus far has baffled all attempts of the police to trace her whereabouts. The four prisoners were remanded by the magistrate for a week, bail being refused.

DIXON REPEATS HIS CHALLENGE

Roosevelt Manager Dares Taft Ringmaster to Primaries.

IS AUTHORIZED TO

Washington, March 6.—Another letter was added today to the literature of the presidential primary "challenge" episode involving the Taft and Roosevelt national headquarters.

Col. Roosevelt's manager Senator Dixon replying to the demand of Director McKinley of the Taft bureau, to know by whom Mr. Dixon had been given authority to issue the primary challenge to the Taft forces, sent a reply today in which he said:

"In addressing you I acted as the representative of the "Men elected by popular vote to stand as the heads of government in their several states, to whom Col. Roosevelt's letter of February 24 was sent."

Senator Dixon adds that direct presidential primaries would show, he believes, an overwhelming sentiment for Mr. Roosevelt; but that if the preference is for President Taft, the fact ought to be ascertained by the same means.

"I therefore renew my challenge," says Senator Dixon, "feeling confident that you will give it more serious consideration than your reply of last night indicated."

Mr. McKinley was not at the Taft headquarters when Senator Dixon's second letter was delivered today. It was acknowledged there however, that the answer of Mr. McKinley last night was designed to ascertain whether Col. Roosevelt had authorized the "organization of the Roosevelt executive committee" and had selected Senator Dixon to conduct an active campaign for him.

SLAYS DIVORCED WIFE AND SELF.

Fremont, Ohio, March 6.—Angered because his wife obtained a divorce while he was in the workhouse for mistreating her, Henry Dorman, a laborer, today shot and killed her in the main street of the town and then committed suicide, firing a bullet into his brain.

HIS HOUSE WAS STOLEN.

Gary, Ind., March 6.—When Will Hammons went to inspect his new house today it was gone. Thieves had moved it away, but to what place the police have been unable to discover. The house was a bungalow with four rooms, in Bowman boulevard, near Clark road. It was completed last Friday.

EXPECT MINERS TO ABATE SOME

Anthracite Operators Do Not Believe Demands Will Be Pressed.

WILL CONFER AGAIN

New York, March 6.—The flat rejection of the demands of the anthracite miners by the coal operators is expected to be followed by the submission of modified demands on the part of the mine workers. A committee of coal operators will, at the conference with the miners next week submit their reply to the miners rejecting the demands.

The mine workers had expected that the demands would be refused but that the operators would offer a counter proposal.

Many of the operators, however, believe that the mine workers will submit modified demands and ask the operators to join them in a series of conferences so that a settlement may be reached and a strike averted when the present working agreement expires on March 31. President White, of the mine workers, has said that the men would quit work the minute the agreement expires. Mr. White and his associates said previous to the conference last week that they expected that the demands would be refused.

The operators keeping close mouthed on the amount of coal on hand in case of strike. Some dealers, it was reported, have already marked up the price of anthracite and bituminous coal, though the larger companies say no advance in price has been made.

HUSBAND MAY DIE; WIFE IS ACCUSED

A MYSTERY IN CASE

Atlanta, Ga., March 6.—After spending the night in a police station where she was held on the charge of shooting her wealthy husband yesterday, Mrs. Daisy Ulrich Obie Grace was released today on $7,500 bond.

Her preliminary hearing has been set for next Wednesday afternoon.

Grace lies gravely wounded at St. Joseph's hospital and is conscious only at intervals. The police are alleged to have discovered that Grace recently had his life insured for $25,000 making his wife the beneficiary. Grace himself has charged his wife with the shooting in statements to officers and friends. His own mother, however, stands by her daughter-in-law and says she believes her son is "out of his head."

Mrs. Grace is forty years old and Grace is but 28.

MRS. TAFT AGAIN ATTENDS HEARING

First Lady of the Land is Interested in the Mill Strike Inquiry.

POLICE HEADS HEARD

Washington, March 6.—Mrs. Taft, wife of the president of the United States, seated behind Rep. Henry of Texas, chairman of the rules committee of the house, and beside Victor Berger, the socialist member of congress, listened attentively for three hours today to testimony relating to the strike of the mill workers at Lawrence, Mass.

This was the second day on which Mrs. Taft has appeared at the hearing. She frequently questioned Mr. Berger, who is pleading the cause of the strikers. Mrs. Taft went to Capitol hill through a heavy snow storm and reached the committee room soon after 10 o'clock. She occupied a seat behind the committee on the platform. Wives of many congressmen also were present. C. F. Lynch, commissioner of public safety of Lawrence, resumed the stand. He first told of lending personal financial assistance to some parents who were persuaded not to send their children from Lawrence.

"Did the city authorities and citizens make and effort to settle the strike?" asked Rep. Hardwick.

"Yes, sir. The city government commissioners met with the strike committee and tried to arrange a meeting with the mill owners. The mill owners refused to deal with the organization, but would with their own men."

The commissioner said he personally saw one riot about the mills.

"I saw a crowd hurling rocks at the mills."

Doubtful as to the Law.

"What section of the statute authorized you to order the police to prevent children leaving Lawrence?" asked Rep. Stanley.

"It was looked up at the time—the statute I think was that preventing children's departure without parents' consent."

"Did you instruct the police to get written consent of their parents?"

"Yes."

"What if the parent was present at the depot?"

"Well, that would be different, if we knew they were the parents."

"Did you read that law you say you have on the statute books of Massachusetts, upon which you acted in this matter?"

"I did not."

"Did you order the police to jail the children?"

"I left that to the man who had police experience."

Captain John J. Sullivan, acting chief of Lawrence, was called as the next witness and told details of the police operations during the strike.

Boy Stabbed With Bayonet.

Captain Sullivan described several street riots and declared that his men were instructed to act carefully. He was asked about the stabbing of an Italian boy.

"Soldiers were going across a trestle bridge," he said, "when this boy rushed at one of them. A second soldier prodded him with a bayonet."

"What was the boy attempting to do?" asked Representative Dalzell.

"No one knew what was in the boy's mind, but the supposition is he intended to push the soldier through the trestle."

"What happened to the boy?"

"He was taken to a hospital and recovered."

He told of one day when the strikers attempted to prevent persons who wished to go to work from reaching the mills.

"Late in the day the strikers began

ROOSEVELT COMES BACK AT STIMSON'S SPEECH REDHOT

Declares Those Who Are Fighting and Criticising Him Would Rule or Ruin Republican Party.

EX-PRESIDENT ON DUTY AS A JUROR

Colonel Roosevelt Appears to Serve, But is Excused for Day.

WASTED SOME TIME

Mineola, L. I., March 6.—For the first time in his life Col. Roosevelt served today as a juror, and at the county court house here he is earning $3 a day.

When Col. Roosevelt reached Mineola today from Oyster Bay he found a good-sized crowd waiting to see him. When the supreme court opened Justice Putnam, the presiding judge, announced that the case which had been continued from yesterday would take up most of today's session.

It was unlikely that Col. Roosevelt would be called to sit in a case today, the court officers said, but owing to the fact that the present case might be completed in time to necessitate the selection of another jury today the jurors were not excused.

Sidesteps Politics.

Col. Roosevelt accordingly had to put in the time as best he could. He was led into the grand jury room, where he settled down in a chair with a book. Col. Roosevelt was asked whether he would comment upon Secretary Stimson's speech in Chicago last night in support of President Taft.

"I don't care to say anything about that," he replied.

The colonel was somewhat annoyed at the persistent attention of the camera squad that followed him at every step. "It's awfully hard," said he, "to smile and look pleasant when your picture is taken so often."

After spending half the morning in the court house, Colonel Roosevelt was told that Judge Putnam had excused the jurors for the rest of the day. He left at once for Oyster Bay.

Mineola, L. I., March 6.—Secretary Stimson's speech in Chicago last night supporting President Taft for the republican nomination brought from Col. Roosevelt today a tart reply. "In regard to Mr. Stimson's statement that against my original intention I am being forced by certain persons into the arena this year, I need merely say," declared Col. Roosevelt, "that the statement is correct only in the sense that it would be correct to make the same statement as to my advocacy of Mr. Stimson for governor in 1910. In that contest, as in this, I was exceedingly reluctant to be drawn into the contest. In that contest, as in this, I acted only from a sense of duty to the people as a whole and in that contest I was assailed with precisely the same arguments by the great majority of those who are now assailing me.

Felt Is His Duty in 1910.

"If I had considered only my own personal interests and personal preference I should, of course, have kept out of the 1910 campaign, have let the machine remain in control at Saratoga and seen the state go democratic by 300,000 majority, as under those circumstances it certainly would have gone. I went in because I conscientiously felt that it was my duty to take my part in the fight for honest government, for genuine self-government by the people without regard to the consequences to myself. And I am in this fight on precisely the same basis and for practically the same reasons.

"Let me add, in view of the questions of certain friends, that neither Mr. Stimson nor any other man whom I have supported for public office owes me any gratitude for doing so; I support a man not to get his gratitude but because I believe he will render good service to the people; and I ask nothing from any man in return except that he render such service to the people, and I judge him accordingly.

The Colonel Warms Up.

"As to the question concerning 'who are forcing me into the arena,' the answer is easy. Which side is making the demand for open primaries and which side is stifling this demand wherever possible, refusing to accede to it save under compulsion and trusting to the use of patronage or such methods as those tried in the recent Kansas City congressional convention and to those very machine leaders who have turned a complete somersault as regards the president during the last four years?

"These leaders are managing the campaign against me; and if they were deliberately trying to wreck the republican party they would follow precisely the tactics they have been following, tactics which make it seem that they would rather see the republican party defeated than see it restored to what it was under Lincoln, and see it become again the genuine party of the people, the party that stands for real popular rule, and for the highest ideals of social and industrial justice, to be achieved through popular rule.

For Presidential Primaries.

"We stand for direct presidential preference primaries everywhere, in Massachusetts, in Illinois, in New York (for in New York the present primary law, passed by the machines of the two parties, is expressly designed to prevent either party from escaping the control of the professional politicians, and from falling under the control of the people). If our opponents wish the people to have their say, let them support real primary bills.

"If in open primaries, without coercion or fraud, without pressure brought by the use of patronage or by the promise or by the withholding of patronage, the plain people of the republican party declare that they do not wish me to be nominated, then most certainly I do not wish the nomination; if they declare that they do wish me, not in my interest, but in the interest of the people as a whole, then, as I have already said, I will accept, and will strive to serve the people with all of whatever powers I possess."

WORK DELAYED ON FEDERAL PRISON

Task is Prolonged in Order to Keep Convicts Employed.

PLEA OF ARCHITECT

St. Louis, March 6.—William S. Eames, member of a local firm of architects today denied his firm was responsible for any delay or extravagance in the construction of the government prison at Leavenworth, Kas., as charged in a complaint to Attorney General Wickersham. More than $1,500,000 has been spent on the work, which has consumed 13 years. The building has not been completed and complaints by congressmen to the attorney general caused him to send Joseph F. Fishman, of the department of justice, to Leavenworth to go over the records.

Eames declared his firm never had charge of expenditures for the building and that the delay was due to the law governing the construction of the building.

"The law for the construction of government prison buildings," he said, "directs that prison labor shall be used as far as possible. The delay in construction is intentional. The purpose is to keep the men in the prison employed."

The Laurel club will meet tomorrow afternoon with Mrs. Frame, 911 East Wayne street.

BURNED IN HIS BED.

Memphis, Tenn., March 6.—John A. Magley, 35, an expert accountant, who came from Binghamton, N. Y., was fatally burned in his apartment here today. The flames destroyed the bed but did not spread further. An attendant says Magley often read and smoked in bed before falling asleep. The authorities are investigating.

A New Feature of the Christmas Story

POLLY FOLSOM, diminutive daughter of Rev. A. J. Folsom, pastor of the Plymouth Congregational church, is a member of the baby class of the primary department of the Sunday school. The story of the birth and childhood of the Christ child is always a favorite with the little ones, and it was being related in detail a few Sundays ago. The teacher of the class told once more the interesting narrative of the journey of Joseph and Mary from their Nazareth home to Jerusalem for the purpose of paying their taxes.

"And how many of you boys and girls know what taxes are?" asked the teacher.

Polly raised her hand. The others didn't. They seemed to envy the minister's child who had an inside line on information concerning the lesson.

"And, Polly, can you tell us what taxes are?"

"Yes, ma'am," responded Polly. "I rode in one once."

They seemed to envy the minister's child.

MERCHANTS ADD 21 NEW MEMBERS

Local Association Gaining in Strength and Influence.

MANY MATTERS UP

Twenty-one new members were received by the Retail Merchants' association at its meeting Monday evening, the list including C. J. Welker, John Vazoreas, the Regis Dry Cleaning company, P. G. Kuttner, E. C. Redenbeck, F. H. Gaylord, J. H. Wilkins, G. P. Kinsey, C. H. Braun, James H. Glenn, Kratzsch & Schroeder, Rose-Strasburg company, Fred H. Miller, George H. Thomas, J. I. VanTochine, J. A. Shirk, R. G. Weller, C. A. Wilding, C. F. Reinkensmeier, C. Kasbaum and Nick Klug.

A number of matters were before the association, but chief interest appeared to center about the Chicago excursion situation. The association decided to make one more effort to induce the Pennsylvania and the Nickel Plate companies to operate excursions into Fort Wayne as well as out of it, and Secretary Harry F. Kennerk will take the matter up with the railroads again.

There was brief discussion of fire insurance rates, and members expressed the belief that the rates fixed by the Indiana Insurance bureau were exorbitant. There was report of progress by the insurance organization within the ranks of the Indiana retail merchants, which charges the same rates as the old-line companies but rebates 20 per cent to its policyholders who are its stockholders.

Complaint was made of long delays at the Fairfield avenue and Lafayette street crossings, and the secretary was directed to call the attention of the chief of police and the board of public works to the situation. The association committee will meet soon with the fair committee to devise ways and means for more attractive premiums at the next annual fair even if some of the racing purses have to be lowered.

Congressman Cline, in a letter to the association, declares he will oppose the parcels post bill now before congress because he believes it favors the big dealers at the expense of the smaller ones.

William Boschet, who has been located in Chicago for the past two years, is visiting in the city for a few days before going to San Antonio in the hope of benefiting his health.

FELL FROM LADDER AND WAS KILLED

Peter Falk, Engineer in a Bluffton Mill, Met Death in an Accident.

Bluffton, Ind., March 6.—Peter Falk, aged 60 years, a well-known resident of Bluffton, was instantly killed yesterday when he fell a distance of twelve feet onto the cement floor of the boiler room at the North & Frazier tile mill, where he was employed as an engineer. Mr. Falk is thought to have been standing on a platform projecting into the room from the tops of the boilers when he lost his balance. When found by William Kinsey, fireman of the dry kilns, the man had been dead for several minutes.

Employes of the factory are at a loss to know the cause of the accident. It is thought however that Mr. Falk had used a small ladder to climb onto the platform projecting from the tops of the boilers and when he reached the platform he lost his balance and fell to the hard floor, a distance of about twelve feet. In the fall his left shoulder blade was broken, the scalp slightly crushed and the left side of the face badly bruised.

The deceased is survived by a wife and one son, Wilson Falk, of Elwood, Ind.

AN IMPORTED SPEAKER.

Not Wanted at School Commencement In Noble County.

Albion, Ind., March 6.—The township trustees were in session at Albion Monday and among other things decided to hold the annual county commencement at Albion, and instead of a special speaker, will select a student from each of the ristrict schools of the county to take part in the program. This is the same arrangement as a year ago, when the program given was a success in every way.

The exact time of the commencement has not been decided as yet, but it is expected that at the next meeting of the trustees, to be held in April, final action will be made and preliminary steps taken for the county commencement which will be held in May. The county field meet will also be held at this time.

County Attorney Brubaker holds that the law is plain in stating that one saloon and no more can be licensed for each 500 inhabitants.

SEATTLE TURNS RECALLED MAYOR

Gill Defeated by Cotterill on Closed Town Platform.

SINGLE TAX LOSES

Seattle, Wash., March 6.—Complete returns from yesterday's election for mayor give George F. Cotterill 31,655; Hiram C. Gill, 31,010, a majority for Cotterill of 645. All socialist candidates were defeated.

Cotterill, the mayor-elect, is widely known as the national head of the Independent Order of Good Templars, and as a prohibition speaker.

When the campaign following the primaries of February 20 was begun no practical politician here thought Cotterill had a chance to win, owing to his views in favor of single tax, municipal ownership and prohibition.

In the last week, however, the fight became a repetition of that of last year when Gill was recalled from the office of mayor by the votes of the newly enfranchised women. The women and the churches took an active part yesterday, asserting Gill's election would mean the restoration of gambling and the vice district. The visit of Wm. J. Bryan to Seattle also was used to advantage by the Cotterill forces.

The single tax amendment to the charter seems to have been beaten. The mayor-elect is pledged to press the construction of the municipal street railway already authorized by the electors. He is also in favor of the public ownership of wharves and harbor facilities.

GENERAL ANDRADE KILLED IN QUITO

Military Hero of Recent Ecuadorean Outbreak Shot Down.

WAS FACING REVOLT

Guayaquil, Ecuador, March 6.—Gen. Julio Andrade, the military commander at Guayaquil, was assassinated at Quito last night by some of his soldiers.

Later it is reported that General Andrade was killed at the head of the police while trying to quell a revolutionary movement in Quito and not assassinated as first stated.

Gen. Julio Andrade was the chief figure in the suppression of the recent revolution in Ecuador after the death of President Estrada. He took command of the army, supporting the Quito government which favored Leonida Plaza, who took over the reins of government on President Estrada's death. On several occasions he met and defeated the insurgent army under General Flavio Alfaro, which supported the claims of Gen. Montero and he finally suppressed the revolution by capturing Guayaquil. Gen Montero was tried by court martial at Guayaquil and then dragged into the streets, beheaded and burned by the angry populace. Eloy Alfaro, Flavio Alfaro, Medardo Alfaro, Ultiano Paez and Samuel Serrano, other revolutionary leaders suffered a similar fate at Quito. The country then became quiet and arrangements were being made to elect a president for the next four years, Gen. Plaza being nominated by the liberals.

GOVERNOR THINKS HE HAS SHOWN 'EM

May Not Use Extraordinary Fund to Further Prosecute Whitecaps.

Indianapolis, March 6.—Governor Marshall is contemplating using no more money from his contingent funds of $40,000 a year for the employment of assisting prosecutors in the Monroe county whitecappers cases. He said he had not fully made up his mind as to what step he would take.

"I have spent $2,000 in employing assistant prosecutors, and we have succeeded in convicting two of the accused men," said the governor. "But more important than the conviction, we have shown that a Monroe county jury will convict whitecappers when it has the evidence. We have dissipated the belief which prevailed over the state for many years that the whitecapper in that county could ply his work with impunity.

"It seems to me now as if, with that much accomplished, it is up to the citizens of Monroe county to complete the work. There are six men to be tried and it would cost the state in round numbers $10,000 to employ lawyers to complete the prosecution. The state has other expensive litigaton under way which will draw on the contingent fund for more lawyers fees, and I do not feel I should draw out $10,000 additional for the Monroe county prosecutions."

MEETINGS ARE SCHEDULED.

Friday night an anti-bond issue meeting will be held by the residents of the Eighth ward at the Olive club hall, and on Monday night at Barva's barn in the Second ward. The list of speakers will include William J. Hosey, Dr. Goheen, August Fuhrmann, Dick Sieling, Henry Schwartz and Marshall Comiscavish.

PROBASCO.

Funeral services for William J. Probasco, whose death occurred at Hope hospital Tuesday afternoon from heart failure following a surgical operation, will be held Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Scottish Rite cathedral, under the auspices of the Fort Wayne Lodge of Perfection. Rev. Henry B. Master will officiate.

W. J. PROBASCO.

Mr. Probasco's death came suddenly and unexpectedly, for while he had been in impaired health during the winter, the operation to which he submitted but an hour or two before his death was of a minor character and no serious results were anticipated. Mr. Probasco was born in this city, March 4, 1855, and his entire lifetime had been spent as a resident of Fort Wayne. He was educated in the public schools of the city, and as a young man took employment in the office of the Adams Express company, later going to the old artificial gas company in the days before the advent of natural gas. Later he took a position with the Fort Wayne Trust company, and with the merging of the latter with the Tri-State Loan and Trust company Mr. Probasco became chief bookkeeper for the Tri-State.

He was prominently identified with the Masonic fraternity, had been secretary of Sol D. Bayless lodge, past commander of Fort Wayne commandery, Knights Templar, and held official position in Fort Wayne Lodge of Perfection. ANOTHER TRAGEDY IN TEXAS AFFAIR

DONE FOR REVENGE

Georgetown, Texas, March 6.—John T. Sneed was killed here today by one of his tenants, R. O. Hillard. The assassin killed himself. He said he shot for revenge. John T. Sneed was the father of John B. Sneed. The latter recently was on trial for the killing of Captain A. C. Boyce. The first tragedy was the sequel to the elopement of Captain Boyce's son with Sneed's wife.

The Sneed trial was not decisive, the jury failing to agree.

While today's shooting was not directly connected with the Sneed-Boyce Feud, yet it came as a climax of the recent dramatic history of the struggle between the two families.

Hillard met the head of the Texas Sneed family in front of the post office. He opened fire, killing Sneed immediately. Then he killed himself. He left a note saying Sneed had mistreated him that he intended to kill, then feign insanity.

At first it was believed the slayer was a member of the Boyce family and it was said Al Boyce, whose elopement with John Beal Sneed's wife started the feud, had done the shooting. The mistake was soon discovered. It is believed young Boyce remains in Manitoba, whence he and Mrs. Sneed went from Texas.

SAY BEAVERS CAN HARDLY RECOVER

Little Hope for 'Busco Man Who Fell from Fast Train.

NOW IN RESTRAINT

Practically no prospect is held out by physicians today for the recovery of Jesse Beavers, the Churubusco man who was found Monday night beside the Nickel Plate tracks at Burket, where he had fallen from a fast train on which he was a passenger.

Suffering from a fractured skull, Beavers has become so violently delirious that authorities at the Lutheran hospital were compelled last night to place the man in a straight jacket in order to control him. He has not had a lucid moment in which he might be able to tell precisely how he came to meet his accident.

Railroad authorities in their investigation, are convinced that Beavers fell from the train, and that he was not thrown from it. They also discount rumors that the man had been robbed. The sum of $26.56 was found upon his person when he was picked up, though his friends say that when he left home a few hours before to start for Montana he had more than $100 in cash.

Physicians say the wound could not have been self inflicted. The bullet struck him in the left side just behind the arm, leaving no powder marks. It took a slanting course and lodged near the spinal cord, which probably has been affected. Grace's legs are paralyzed.

The police were called to a residence in the most exclusive home district of Atlanta yesterday. In the house they found Grace, a bullet wound in his side. He told a rambling story in which his wife figured. It was discovered she had gone to Newman, Ga., early in the day, but she returned last night. She was arrested and is held while the police are trying to find how Grace received the ugly bullet wound and what part Mrs. Grace played in the shooting.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Craig Lenington, 801 Oakwood boulevard, Chicago, are the parents of a baby son, born Sunday. Mr. Lenington formerly resided in Fort Wayne.

TAFT'S TREATIES WILL BE RATIFIED

Before Day Ends Arbitration Pacts Will Get by in the Senate.

A DAY IN CONGRESS

Washington, March 6.—By nightfall the arbitration treaties with Great Britain and France may be ratified by the senate.

Those senators who have been carefully canvassing the situation almost ever since the treaties were submitted to the senate early last August asserted they expected to muster the necessary two-thirds vote for ratifying the treaties unamended. They conceded, however, the danger point in clause 3 of article 3 relating to the delegation of power to the joint high commission to determine what questions are arbitrable after the treaty signatories disagree.

With that clause maintained the main fight would be on the Lodge resolution of ratification which would interpret the treaties so as to safeguard the senate's full treaty making prerogatives. Senator Root, who has a substitute for the Lodge resolution designed to bar from arbitration the Monroe doctrine and like questions, has been watching the developments closely.

Senators Bacon, Shively and Hoke Smith were among the set speakers today and both advocates and opponents were prepared for the final voting late this afternoon.

THE DAY IN CONGRESS.

Washington, March 6.—The day in congress:

Senate:

In session at 1:30 p. m.

Resumed final debate on the French and British treaties which may be voted upon before adjournment.

BAD BLOOD; NO FIGHT.

Oakland, Cal., March 6.—For the novel reason that the fighters are nursing personal grudges against each other, the city commissioners have declared off the return match between Frankie Burns and Johnny Frayne, scheduled here for March 20. The authorities declare the recent ten-round fight between the men was marked by attempts to injure each other.

DISCUSS RICHESON'S FATE.

Boston, Mass., March 6.—Clarence V. T. Richeson had a brief conference in the Charles street jail today with Governor Foss and eight members of the executive council who alone can prevent the former clergyman's execution for the murder of Avis Linnell. Richeson made no plea for commutation.

SENDS HAMILTON CASE TO DEKALB

Grants Change of Venue in High School Condemnation Suit.

HOISEN IN TROUBLE

In the circuit court today Judge O'Rourke announced that he had granted a change of venue to DeKalb county in the suit instituted by the school board to condemn the property of Miss Margaret V. Hamilton for the extension of the high school.

The case will go up on the question of exceptions to the report of the appraiser named by the court to fix a price and who named $38,000 as the figure.

There was a contention on the part of the school board that the law does not give the right of a change of venue but Judge O'Rourke decided that it does.

Zach Hoisen in Trouble.

When Zach Hoisen was arraigned in the circuit court today to show cause why he should not pay an attorney fee for his wife, who is suing him for a divorce he was a bit indifferent and inclined to be jocular.

He told Judge O'Rourke that he had nothing but the coat on his back and a dog and that he could not pay. He also intimated that he would not pay and the judge gave him the choice of paying or going to jail for contempt. Late today he was in charge of Deputy Sheriff Wilkerson looking for somebody willing to stake him to $25.

Demands $2,500 Damages.

John S. Allen has entered suit against the Fort Wayne Builders' Supply company for $2,500 damages. He says he was compelled to climb over a loaded wagon in performance of his duties, that some barrels fell with him and he broke four ribs and sustained other injuries. This occurred Oct. 25, 1911. McAdams and Hartzell filed the suit.

A Woman in This Case.

A woman by the name of Compton, who lived in Ohio, is one of the disturbing elements in the household of Charles D. Snyder, whose wife, Gertrude, has entered suit for divorce.

Mrs. Snyder says she was married March 24, 1898, and has three children as a fruit of this marriage and one the child of a former husband. She says her husband calls her bad names, failed to properly provide and struck and choked the daughter of the former marriage. He is employed on the Nickel Plate road and she wants suitable alimony. Thomas and Townsend filed the suit.

In the Commissioners' Court.

Officers of the Fort Wayne and Springfield Traction company have been instructed by the county commissioners to remove tracks to the center of the road along the John H. Bass property south of the city. The owner wants to plat the ground and needs space for sidewalks.

CONQUEST OF THE ANTARCTIC POLE?

Unconfirmed Rumor Reaches London of Capt. Scott's Success in Effort.

WIFE HAS NO WORD

London, March 6.—A rumor is published in an evening paper that Captain Robert F. Scott, the British antarctic explorer, has reached the south pole.

Mrs. Scott declares that she has heard nothing from her husband and there is no confirmation obtainable from any source.

Captain Robert Falcon Scott, of the British royal navy, who is command of the British antarctic expedition, left England in July, 1910. He had with him sixty men, twenty Siberian ponies, thirty dogs and two motor sledges. Before his departure he said that his plans for the journey from King Edwards land to the south pole included the use of three means of sledge traction—ponies, dogs and motors—and ponies are to be taken in sufficient numbers to assure a thoroughly adequate amount of food being taken to the base of the Beardmore glacier.

The Terre Nova, in which Captain Scott's expedition sailed, left London on June 1, 1910. Stores sufficient for three years were carried. Four other each of them with a view to attaining the south pole. The most important of these is considered to be that of the Norwegian captain, Roald Amundsen, who is utilizing the celebrated polar ship The Fram, which Dr. Fridtjof Nansen used in his explorations in the Arctic ocean from 1893 to 1896. Captain Amendsen left Buenos Ayres towards the close of 1910.

Why They Can Spell It.

"Before I went to Europe," said the school teacher, "it was one of the mysteries of my profession how every British child enrolled in our schools came to be authority on the spelling of chilblains. Teachers might hesitate over one "l" or two, the children never. They might make orthographic mess of the simplest one syllable word, but the tiniest tot from the British isles went to the head of the class on chilblains every time. One wintry month in those same islands told me why. It is the word they saw oftenest. In drug stores, in clothing stores, in shops of all kinds cures and preventives of chilblains are universally advertised. Owing to the exigencies of the climate there is a regular chilblains literature presented for those children's absorption, so no wonder they know how to spell their universal affliction."

BASSO TELLS OF WAY IN AMERICA

Had One Wife But She Got Another Man and Shook Him.

CITY COURT DOCKET

"In dees a contra man gitta tired of wife he gitta nodder woman and woman gitta tired she gitta nodder man. Das de way."

This stricture on American social conditions was delivered in the city court today by Angelo Basso, plain drunk, who said he "scrape da street" in Toledo until "maybe he gitta wan day in week, den maybe gitta two, den maybe gitta none."

He said he had a wife once but she has another man now and when the judge asked him a few pertinent questions he admitted that the separation grew out of his fondness for strong liquor. He was charged with plain drunk and drew eleven days.

William Smith arrested at Sydney, Ind., and brought back here on a charge of wife desertion, was granted a continuance until tomorrow morning. He has a family of four children and has not contributed anything to their support for several months and the rent is now three months in arrears and the wife and children are suffering. He was formerly employed on the Nickel Plate road.

The Other Cases.

Allen Frankenburg paid a fine of $1 and costs for drunkenness and Frank Warner was allowed to go with a warning.

Charles Rogers, charged with vagrancy, said he was begging something to eat when he was arrested but that he had a job for tomorrow and he was permitted to go.

BUYS BACK VALUABLE REALTY.

Michigan Governor Recovers Property Sold for Taxes.

South Bend, Ind., March 6.—It is seldom a man of wealth and political prominence such as that of Governor Chase Osborn, of Michigan, allows valuable property in a city like South Bend to be sold for taxes, but that is what occurred two years ago. As a result Mark L. Brummitt, of New Carlisle, profited. A house and lot on Bartlett street, owned by the governor, was sold for $36.68 to cover a delinquent sewer assessment. Recently Mr. Brummitt gave Governor Osborn a quit-claim deed to the property for $54.95.

THE BATHTUB CASE.

Detroit, Mich., March 6.—With the trial of the alleged "bathtub trust," charged with conspiracy to restrain trade, nearing completion, the defense was prepared to offer at today's session in federal court more testimony in support of the assertion that their trade agreements proved a benefit instead of a detriment to the public. Since Judge Nyell quashed the indictments against several of the defendants last week, the case has proceeded smoothly and with practically no serious interruption from motions.

DOG SAVED THEIR LIVES.

Oakland City, Ind., March 6.—A dog saved the lives of Mrs. Daniel Anderson and her child from fire in the Anderson home early today but itself could not escape the flames. The dog aroused Mrs. Anderson by barking in her bed room. Smoke filled the house and she had only time to carry the child out before the place was ablaze. The dog, it is supposed could not find the door.

SALOON MEN TRY TO STOP TRAFFIC

If Law Violators Will Not Listen to Reason Then Comes the Law.

HAVE A FINE CHANCE

A committee from the recently organized Saloonkeepers Protective association has started out to visit places where Sunday clubs are operated in connection with barrooms and will endeavor to persuade the saloon men connected with them to check entirely the Sunday traffic.

If the men will listen to reason and quit all will be well, but if they decline then the men who are doing all in their power to observe the regulations of the Proctor law will take the matter of prosecution up and see what can be done.

One man has already promised to quit and it is the opinion of the members of the committee that others will follow suit. Another point of attack is through the breweries and this will also be brought to bear.

All of these clubs are instituted simply for law evasion and if an attack is made there will be little difficulty in ridding the city of them. Men who refuse to join the movement will also find great trouble in renewing their licenses as the fight is a determined one and will be carried to a finish.

Chief of Police Abbott is heartily with the men who are trying to stop Sunday selling and he says that if the committee fails he will join it and organize a crusade that he believes will bring about results.

REORGANIZATION IN POSTAL FORCE

Change Groups Five Former Divisions Into Two Departments.

EFFECTIVE MONDAY

Following departmental recommendation Postmaster Hanna has issued an order for the reorganization of the Fort Wayne postoffice clerical force by which there will hereafter be but two departments—the division of finance and the division of delivery, instead of five departments as heretofore.

Under the new arrangement, which becomes effective next Monday, the division of finance, with Assistant Postmaster W. J. Hess in general charge, will embrace the money order, the stamp and the postal savings divisions.

The delivery division will be in charge of R. A. McCulloch as superintendent of mails, with C. F. Kettler as assistant superintendent, embracing the incoming and outgoing mails, the city delivery, the general delivery and the rural delivery divisions, as well as the registry departments.

Mr. McCulloch's title as superintendent of mails is unchanged, while that of Mr. Kettler becomes assistant superintendent of mails instead of superintendent of delivery.

STOKERS WALK OUT ON STRIKE

Gas Works Employes, Displeased at Schedule, Quit Jobs.

PLACES ARE FILLED

Some fifteen men employed as stokers at the Indiana Lighting company at its gas works on Superior street, went on a strike this morning because they were dissatisfied with a new schedule of hours and wages posted by the company yesterday. General Manager Mulholland says that the places of the men have been filled and that the works are moving along in normal fashion.

The stokers, it is said, have been for some time dissatisfied with the wage schedule and the working hours in force at the forks under which they were receiving 18 cents an hour on a basis of a twelve-hour day, or $2.16 per day. This schedule was revised yesterday, putting the men on an eleven-hour basis at twenty cents an hour, or $2.20 per day, amounting to practically the same daily rate as before.

This morning the stokers notified Superintendent Danforth that they would not accept the new schedule, and walked out one or two laborers who were asked to take their places doing the same.

CARELESS DRIVER GETS A CALLING

LITTLE DAMAGE DONE

A careless driver in the employ of the Collins Ice Cream company left his horse untied at Wayne and Calhoun street early today and when the chemical engine made a run to the Rothschild fire on Columbia street there was a collision between the team and the horse that for a few seconds promised serious results.

A young gray horse, which is one of the chemical team and regarded as one of the most valuable animals in the department, was thrown to the pavement and dragged twenty feet. The horse hitched to the ice cream wagon also went down, but some excellent horsemanship on the part of the chemical driver prevented serious injury. The fire department horse was slightly injured but was able to get up and continue to the fire.

Patrolman Shaughnessy got the driver and took him to police headquarters and gave him a good calling for his carelessness. His employer agreed to pay all damages and to see that his drivers tie their horses when they leave them and the man was allowed to go.

Alarm Was Due to Smoke.

The alarm from the wholesale paper house of Rothschild Brothers at 319 East Columbia street was turned in at 8:45 o'clock, and it was due to the fact that a stovepipe had fallen from a chimney and filled the room with smoke. There was no damage.

The department made an early run at 12:15 o'clock this morning to 1115 Michigan avenue, where the roof of the residence occupied by F. M. Foreman was damaged to the extent of $10 by fire.

GERMANY'S NAVAL PROGRAM.

Berlin, March 6.—The new naval and military bills which are to be discussed by the Reichstag this session have been completely drafted and submitted to the federal council. The naval bill according to an article in the Lokal Anzeiger, today, provides for the construction of three additional battleships and two small cruisers during the next six years. The building of five further reserve battleships is also to be accelerated. The annual cost of the navy will be increased by $3,750,000 in the first year and by $10,750,000 in the fifth year, but it has not yet determined by the government how this extra expenditure is to be covered.

GETTING TOGETHER, HEADS DOWN.

At once upon The Colonel's formal announcement that he would take the presidential nomination from Mr. Taft if the call should become spontaneous enough to make that possible, the Taft headquarters issued notice and warning that no personal attack was to be made on the rival. The Colonel put his junta under compulsion to treat Mr. Taft with distinguished and distinguishing respect. It was a fine double-burst of magnanimity and generosity. And nothing more. The Taft bureau has caused it to be known far and wide that the president has been double-crossed, that The Colonel has welched on a copper-riveted promise, and to prove it the Taft bureau prints the promise. Tell it not in Gath, publish it not in the streets of Askalon, but The Colonel has convictions that somebody down Washington way is an eligible to the Ananias club. And he does some printing on his own account. He may be reserving the short and ugly for late Friend Stimson, and he may be reserving it for late Friend Meyer, both of the cabinet, but it is going upon somebody's brow. And now behold how beautiful it is for brethren to dwell in peace. "We elected Taft four years ago in the International Harvester building in Chicago, and so far as I know no rent was paid for the rooms." This amicable corkscrew punch is landed on the unguarded jaw of the Taft candidacy by Roosevelt Manager Dixon. "Farmers of the middle west are demanding that George W. Perkins and Medill McCormick separate themselves from Mr. Roosevelt and his campaign. In this demand they are only indicating their ignorance of the fact that Mr. Perkins would probably have lost his job long ago had it not been for his intimate friendship with Mr. Roosevelt running back over many years." Thus the Taft manager counters on the solar plexus of the Oyster Bay candidacy. It is going to be a fine contest with the amenities of politics and ancient friendship served in many styles—stuffed, hashed, grilled, minced and raw. It is clear that by the time the mercury rises to blood-heat in Washington, along about Easter, Will and Theo will be sitting under the shade in the white house back yard wondering if it really is true they are not born brothers.

THE SMOKE NUISANCE.

The technical committee of the Civic Improvement association ought to find no great difficulty enlisting co-operation of everybody who can help in the work of abolishing the smoke nuisance in Fort Wayne. It is true that difficulties are encountered even in the effort to gain support for the movement, and more's the pity, for it is a two-fold benefit that will come from the success of the technical committee's efforts. To abolish coal smoke means to abate a nuisance that in a myriad way is disagreeable and one that in a myriad way is costly. The more smoke there is the greater waste of fuel. If a way can be found to convert this waste into heat units a vast saving will be effected, but by no no means all the saving. Coal smoke is destructive as well as disagreeable. It not only discolors; it corrodes. Where there is much of it, as of necessity there will be within a large industrial community like Fort Wayne, this element of cost in the aggregate is large. But the burdens of cost it imposes are so numerous as not to be easily described or defined. To the waste of fuel and the destruction by corrosion there must be added waste that ensues in the increase of laundry bills, in the increase of domestic labors and burdens, in the soiling and wear of clothing. These incidents of the smoke nuisance may seem slight to all but the housewives and domestic caretakers, who are the most direct as well as the greatest sufferers, but if some one were to take the infinite pains to make the tedious computation of the aggregate of all this expense it would afford a convincing exhibit. The technical committee is trying to find the way to deal practically with the smoke nuisance and general co-operation in this purpose should be the ungrudged contribution of all who can lend a hand.

THE MOOSE INDUSTRIAL SCHOOL.

The local lodge of the Order of Moose has shown its earnestness and good faith in the attempt to provide a site for the proposed industrial school that great fraternal organization is about to establish at some point central in the country. It has progressed so far as now to entitle it to general co-operation in this city to raise the funds necessary to provide the site. Already the lodge itself, with little intervention of outside aid, has procured pledges for a large part of the funds needed, and is so much encouraged as to have taken option upon a most desirable site. Very stisfactory assurances that Fort Wayne can secure the location of the school here have been received and the raising of the balance of the needed fund deserves attention of Fort Wayne. On many accounts this school will be a most desirable acquistion for the city. The design comprehends a sort of education of which the country needs more. It will afford a great educational advantage of an invaluable kind to a large number of youth here. It will center upon Fort Wayne the direct and personal concern of a million men scattered in every section of the United States. It will have important financial aspects of great value to Fort Wayne, and it most probably will be followed by some industrial developments of importance. It is a splendid as well as a practical philanthropy the Moose are planning, and it will mean a great increase of repute and of prestige for the city that is chosen as the seat of the institution. Fort Wayne cannot afford to let this opportunity go by default, the less so since the local lodge itself has given such an evidence of its own good faith and public spirit in the enterprise. Fort Wayne should carry this project forward. It would hurt to let it fail now.

It is disclosed in the congressional hearing of the Lawrence mill strike that the children of the operatives have gone through the rigors of this almost unprecedented winter without underwear. "The condition of some of these children was terrible," testified one witness, a woman from Philadelphia. "Out of 119 only four of them had on underwear," she added. "And these people were working in a woolen mill," commented Chairman Stanley, of the committee. But will any of this aid to get a bill on schedule "K" out of the hole?

FEMININE RUFFIANISM IN LONDON.

(N. Y. American.)

If the men of England are likely to yield votes to women any more readily because of the pistol balls and brickbats that suffragettes are throwing into London windows the English are different from Americans.

We in America would not regard such demonstrations as convincing. We would not consider women who make use of reckless violence to carry a political point as much more worthy of consideration than spoiled and vicious children.

If the women of England and America have been wronged by the withholding of the ballot their wrongs are like the wrongs of men who have been robbed by monopolies and bad laws. And since we cannot admit that people swindled by the tariff are justified in breaking the windows of the custom house, or that householders whose tax levy is excessive are free to assault the assessors, we cannot admit either that the wrongs of women can be righted by ruffianism.

The suffragists of the United States have done well in keeping their movement generally free from physical violence. Their influence should be, and presumably is, exerted to restrain and rebuke the outlawry of English suffragettes. For nothing can be clearer than that the habit of violence works a complete disqualification for the electoral franchise. And what is done in London must not, for the good of a great cause, be imputed to the women of New York.

MODERN NEGRO SCHOOL.

(Southern Workman.)

A few years ago there was a small one-room country negro school in a certain county in the south. To this one-room school has been added a cottage home where a young man lives with his wife and small child. The school and the home are one. The children come to school to study the usual subjects, such as reading, writing and arithmetic, but in addition to this they cultivate a large garden plot adjoining the school, grow the vegetables, gather them, bring them into the house, cook them, and serve them in the dining room. They sweep the floors, make the beds, set the table, wash the windows—in fact, do everything that belongs to keeping a country cottage home clean and wholesome. They do all the work that is done in the large garden plot, preparing the soil, planting the crops and gathering them. In addition to this, they have rented a plot of ground near the schoolhouse on which they grow cotton, corn and other crops. We found the plot planted in cotton. The children have done the work on this plot. They will pick the cotton, sell the product and use the funds for the improvement of the school. This man and his wife live in this school home the year round. They both teach and they both lead the children in the various activities belonging to a country home. They are leaders in the community, teaching in church work and co-operating with the farmers of the neighborhood in improving farm operations.

TASTE, SMELL AND HEARING RESTORED

A Simple, Harmless Remedy Quickly Relieves Catarrhal Deafness.

The thousands who suffer the miseries of colds and catarrh and claim they have never found a cure can get instant relief by simply anointing the nostrils with Ely's Cream Balm.

Unlike internal medicines which upset the stomach, or strong snuffs which only aggravate the trouble, this cleansing, healing, antiseptic Balm instantly reaches the seat of the trouble, stops the nasty discharge, clears the nose, head and throat and brings back the sense of taste, smell and improves the hearing. More than this, it strengthens the weakened and diseased tissues, thus protecting you against a return of the trouble. This remedy will cure a cold in a day and prevent its becoming chronic or resulting in catarrh.

Nasal catarrh is an inflammation of the membrane lining the air passages, and cannot be reached by mixtures taken into the stomach, nor can it be cured by snuffs and powders which only cause additional irritation. Don't waste time on them. Get a 50 cent bottle of Ely's Cream Balm from your druggist, and after using it for a day you will wish you had tried it sooner.

Mothers should give the children Ely's Cream Balm for colds and croup. It is perfectly harmless and pleasant to take.

MOOSE INVITE TRUSTEES.

Supreme Officers Asked to Come and Inspect School Site.

Fort Wayne lodge of Moose last evening extended an invitation to the supreme trustees of the order to come to Fort Wayne and inspect the site upon which the local membership has secured an option for the location of the proposed industrial school of the order.

The traction company is said to have made an offer by which the Moose may secure 150 acres for school purposes. Canvass is going forward with much vigor to bring the pledge funds up to the required total, and this work is under the direction of Dictator F. A. Emrick and Secretary D. C. Stont.

UPHOLDS WHITE SLAVE LAW.

Court Decides Traffic Can be Regulated by Interstate Acts.

Cincinnat, O., March 6.—That traffic in human beings can be regulated by the interstate commerce acts, as well as traffic in chattels, was held by the United States Circuit Court of Appeals here yesterday in an opinion delivered by Justice Dennison. Accordingly, the conviction of three women on the charge of violating the "white slave law," was upheld and the women ordered to serve their sentences. The attorney for the women gave notice that he would carry the cases to the supreme court of the United States to test the constitutionality of the ruling.

You judge a man not by what he promises to do, but by what he has done. That is the only true test. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy judged by this standard has no superior. People everywhere speak of it in the highest terms of praise. For sale by all dealers.

WOMAN MUST DIE IN CHAIR.

First Sentence of Kind Pronounced in Massachusetts Courts.

Plymouth, Mass., March 6.—For the first time in Massachusetts criminal procedure, a woman, Mrs. Lena Cusumano of Hull, yesterday was sentenced to death in the eletric chair by Judge Quinn in the Plymouth Superior court. Enrico Mascioli, whose name has been Anglicized to "Harry Marshall," and who was convicted jointly with Mrs. Cusumano for the murder of the woman's husband, Frank Cusumano, in September, 1910, also was sentenced to death. Both sentences are to be carried out in State Prison at Charlestown during the week beginning June 2, next.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has won its great reputation and extensive sale by its remarkable cures of coughs, colds and croup. It can be depended upon. Try it. Sold by all dealers.

Are the Fly and Mosquito Dangerous?

The fly, with spongy feet, collects the invisible germs of diseases, spreads them over our food and poisons us with typhoid and cholera. The mosquito with its bite injects into our veins malaria and yellow fever. The bacteria of consumption, or grip, are everywhere present for us to breathe into our lungs. The blood which flows through our veins and arteries is our protection. It should contain healthy red and white blood corpuscles—capable of warding off these disease germs. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is a blood medicine and alterative made entirely without alcohol, a pure glyceric extract of bloodroot, golden seal, Oregon grape root, queen's root, mandrake and stone root, which has enjoyed a good reputation for over forty years. The refreshing influence of this extract is like Nature's influence—the blood is bathed in the tonic which gives life to the blood—the vital fires of the body burn brighter and their increased activity consumes the tissue rubbish which has accumulated during the winter.

M. MAGUIRE, ESQ.

"About forty years ago while in Newark, New Jersey, I had chills and fever," writes MR. MICHAEL MAGUIRE, of National Military Home, Kans. "I went to Kansas City and in the spring of 1877 the chills and fever returned. Doctors and everything I tried failed to do me good. Finally I saw Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery advertised. I took one bottle of it and the chills vanished. In about a year afterward I felt them coming back so I got another bottle and have never had any symptoms of fever or ague since. That is all of twenty years ago, for I had the chills about twelve years before I started to take 'Golden Medical Discovery.'"

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are for liver ills.

Within ten minutes after an application of Danderine you cannot find a single trace of Dandruff or a loose or falling hair and your scalp will not itch, but what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use, when you will actually see new hair fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair—sprouting all over the scalp.

A little Danderine will immediately double the beauty of your hair. No difference how dull, faded, brittle and scraggy, just moisten a cloth with Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. Men Who Helped to Make America

Lewis Warrington, Naval Officer.

LEWIS WARRINGTON, naval hero in early days of the United States, was born at Williamsburg, Va., November 3, 1782. He was educated at William and Mary College, from which he graduated in 1798.

It was in the year 1800 that he entered the navy as midshipman. His first services were rendered under Preble in the war with Tripoli, when the constant depredations on the commerce of the United States by the Barbary States of North Africa were a cause of constant trouble to the government.

Warrington was made a lieutenant in February, 1807, and was on the Chesapeake when off the coast of Virginia she was fired into by the British frigate Leopard. The American vessel being unprepared for action, struck her colors, having twenty-one of her crew killed or wounded.

LEWIS WARRINGTON

This was one of the outrages that led to the War of 1812, in which Warrington sailed in the Congress under Commodore Rodgers in vain pursuit of the British West India fleet.

In 1813 he was made master and placed in command of the Peacock, in which he captured nineteen vessels.

After the war he rendered valuable service in the Mediterranean and in various navy yards. From 1847 until his death, which occurred in Washington, D. C., October 12, 1851, he was Chief of Ordnance.

WAR SECRETARY SUPPORTS TAFT

Stimson First of Cabinet Members to Speak Out for Chief.

HEARD IN CHICAGO.

Chicago, March 6.—In his first speech of the campaign Secretary of War Henry L. Stimson last night declared the nomination of Theodore Roosevelt would be a blow to permanent progress in the national government.

The cabinet official made it plain that in spite of his former close relations with Colonel Roosevelt he now is squarely for the renomination of President Taft.

Mr. Stimson was the principal speaker at the opening campaign rally of the Taft Club of Illinois at Orchestra hall. More than 2,000 persons composed an audience that applauded frequently and with enthusiasm.

Gives Roosevelt Credit.

The secretary of war described himself as a progressive. He gave Colonel Roosevelt credit for his entrance into public life and said he remains a sincere friend of the former president.

"But I believe," added Mr. Stimson, "that those who are forcing him, contrary to his original intention, into the arena against Mr. Taft are jeopardizing instead of helping the real cause of progress in the nation."

Mr. Stimson uttered a warning that the dissension arising from a contest within the republican party may lead to a victory of the democratic party, which he termed "a truly reactionary party."

Applaud Attack on Recall.

The most hearty applause of the evening came when Mr. Stimson expressed his emphatic opposition to the judicial recall.

He indorsed the position taken by President Taft on the recall. While admitting that some judges have abused their power, Mr. Stimson said there are better ways of bringing a judge into accord with the enlightened conscience of the people than "by dragging him down into the welter of politics."

Mr. Stimson avoided committing himself directly upon the initiative and referendum, two of the propositions favored by Colonel Roosevelt in his Columbus speech. He said these were questions that should be passed upon by the states individually and not by the nation.

Difference in States.

"Successful progressive reform in Oregon or Wisconsin," said Mr. Stimson, "may be very different from successful progressive reform in New York or Pennsylvania, with their different business and social conditions."

Mr. Stimson expressed the belief that the referendum had worked satisfactorily in Oregon, but the system of a referendum on coustitutional questions in New York had worked ineffectively and badly.

In view of different conditions in the various states Mr. Stimson said the dragging into a national campaign of the prejudices and shibboleths which have arisen in the state contests merely distracts atention from the main issues involving the federal government.

Speaks of "Dramatic Display."

Commenting on President Taft's quiet and inconspicuous methods Mr. Stimson administered a gentle slap at Colonel Roosevelt. The cabinet official said it was unfair to criticise the president because he has not dominated the public "with dramatic display."

Mr. Stimson said that with the thorough approval and deliberate indorsement of Colonel Roosevelt, President Taft had at the beginning of his term renounced striking methods of reform and set himself to the undramatic and inconspicuous public service which leaves out all thought of a man's own aggrandizement.

In endeavoring to show that President Taft has remained steadfast to progressive principles Mr. Stimson cited the president's position on the tariff and the tariff board, reciprocity, the trust problem, the corporation tax, his interest in human welfare and his policy in taking action only after careful investigation of the facts.

SISTERS MEET AFTER LONG SEPARATION

MRS. JANET GILLIE. MRS AGNES COLLIE.

"I think I'll bide a wee," said Mrs. Agnes Collie at the home of Mrs. Janet Gillie following her arrival from Scotland to make her home with a sister she had not seen in twenty-nine years.

She started from her home at Airdie February 22, landed at Halifax and traveled as rapidly as the cars would carry her to Fort Wayne anxious to clasp once more the sister who had left her native land more than a quarter of a century ago to seek her fortune in America.

Both sisters answered promptly when they were asked if they would have been able to recognize each other had they met accidentally after so many years of separation and each said she would have known the other any place on earth.

Their family name was Taylor and their home at the time of the separation was Black Adder in Berwickshire. Mrs. Collie was single at the time and she accompanied her sister a short distance on the train and they parted with the firm belief that in a comparatively short time they would be together again.

Dr. George Gillie, present city meat and milk inspector, was a baby at the time and since the arrival in Allen county the Gillie family has grown rapidly until it numbers six brawny lads and bonnie lassies.

In the meantime the sister married and she has a family of four children, the two youngest, Grace and Allan, having accompanied her on her long journey. Two older daughters remained in Scotland and will come to America in a short time.

Mrs. Janet Gillie is the widow of the late James Gillie, during his life one of the most respected men in Allen county, and with the death of her husband came a desire to see her own people again and a correspondence resulted in the determination of her sister to try America as a home.

The reunion has lifted the cares and burdens of many years from the two sisters and in quaint Scotch dialect, one having survived thirty years in America and the other fresh from the braes of Berwickshire, they have gone over the days of their youth and the years of their separation.

DOGS TO GO INTO TRAINING.

Days of Ease for Spokane's Canines Are Now Things of Past.

Spokane, Wash., March 6.—Days of lethargy and ease are over for fat and pampered canine pets of Spokane. Hereafter they will go into strict training and all excess adipose tissue will be scientifically removed.

The Spokane Humane society has established a treadmill at the society kennels and dogs in bad condition from over-feeding and lack of exercise will be compelled to run, whatever their personal inclination may be. The speed of the treadmill will be throttled down for a pug and lapdog, but will be switched to the high gear as the excess weight is removed.

DRY TOWN IN BREATH.

Court Changes Officials and Gets While-You-Wait Results.

Sapulpa, Okla., March 6.—Acting District Judge Allen's suddenly precipitated campaign for enforcement of prohibition laws resulted in sensational developments. He first removed from office County Attorney Decker and Sheriff John Berry.

In their places he named, respectively, John Overstreet and Holmes Davidson. They moved rapidly, raiding sixteen places in the heart of the town where it was alleged prohibition laws were being violated.

Judge Allen had declared, as he removed the prosecutor and sheriff that he "knew of fifteen places within a stone's throw of the court house where liquor was sold."

The new officials went Judge Allen one better, arresting proprietors of sixteen. These included hotels, drug stores, barber shops and pool rooms.

The county commissioners ratified Judge Allen's action.

HIS CLOTHING STOPS SHOTS.

Heavy Garments Save Man Who Was Target in Harlem.

New York, March 6.—Francis E. Oliver, fifty-four years old, a watchman in the Harlem market, returning home, was shot at twice by a man who escaped. He received only a slight flesh wound because of heavy clothing and the small size of the shots.

The police found in the yard at 235 East 105th street a double-barreled shotgun.

Oliver and a man named French were acquitted in June, 1910, on the charge of having shot and killed an Italian named Cascaro Santoro. The police believe the shooting is the result of a sort of "vendetta."

AT THE MAJESTIC.

VAUDEVILLE.

Bill Attracting Large Crowds. Performing Birds a Feature.

Madam Marcella with her wonderful performing birds is one of the big attractions at the Majestic theater, this week, and there have been few acts its equal seen on the vaudeville stage in this city. The birds used in the performance include macaws, pigeons, parrots, cockatoos, and ravens and the fears indicate extraordinary care on the part of their trainers. Few people would have supposed that birds of this class could be taught what Marcella persuades them to do, the entire act being unusual and out of the ordinary. Parrots do the tumbling and trapeze acts with the skill of human acrobats; macaws waltz and two-step, and the cockatoos give indications of ability to read. At the performance last night one of them from a long line of miscellaneous letters, picked out the letters to spell the name of Mayor Grice.

Other acts on the bill which go big with the audience are Casad, Irwin and Casad in a rattling good novelty entitled "Everyday Life on the Railroad" which offers a great many opportunities for big laughs. A clever and pleasing climax makes the act a big hit. Cycling Rocey has a very good turn and the Majestic theater patrons have been very liberal with their applause for his wonderful work. Caldwell and Pelton are a clever pair and contribute fifteen minutes of good singing and talking.

The McCall Trio, Mac Keough & Company, Will Hart, and The Great Francellias and Company complete a bill which is proving good entertainment at the Majestic every afternoon and evening this week.

RUM SHIPPED IN COFFINS.

Suspected "Corpses" for Oklahoma Reveal Illicit Liquor Traffic.

Muskogee, Okla., March 6.—The grewsome manner in which bootleggers are getting whisky into Oklahoma from adjoining states was revealed when officers discovered that a coffin taken out of the baggage car at the Midland Valley depot in Muskogee contained pint and half-pint bottles of whisky. A man dressed in somber black, in the guise of an undertaker, hauled a coffin to the Midland depot at Fort Smith in a hearse. He shipped the "corpse" to some fictitious person at Muskogee. As the train started to go he rushed to the baggage car to see if the body was safe, remarking he would accompany it.

At Muskogee the "undertaker" alighted from the train with two large grips or suitcases. Usually these grips are filled with liquor. Becoming impatient because the local undertaker did not appear, the man had the coffin hauled away to a quiet place and opened and the whisky stored.

MODEL FOR SCHOOL FROCK.

By Mrs. Jane Ford.

4 SIZES 6 TO 12 YRS.

A GIRL'S dress that can be cut out and completely finished in a few hours is a model well worth considering. This is especially true when it is smart in appearance and requires only a small amount of material, as does the model pictured. The body and sleeves are in one, with a neck and front finish cut in one, and joined to the waist with a single seam. The straight plaited skirt is joined to the body under a belt of the material, and the closing of the frock is effected invisibly at the side front.

Most mothers will select tub materials of the heavier weaves for developing this frock, but it will be equally pretty carried out in light weight woollens. Plain colored linens will be exceedingly smart elaborated with bands of wash braid or bias plaid gingham stitched on either edge. A dressy little frock could be made of white pique, and the heavier the cord the more fashionable it will be this season. The collar and lapels could be of plain linen with insets of heavy crochet lace; the sleeves should also be finished with the lace. The chemisette is removable, and if used should be of the collar material.

To copy the dress for a girl eight years of age requires three and three-eighths yards of thirty-six-inch goods.

Some Items of Interest to the Modern Housewife.

The Fad for Discarding the Tablecloth in Favor of Doilies Not Altogether Satisfactory.

Recently there has been quite a revival of the fashion of "no tablecloth" at dinner among persons who are fortunate enough to own antique and beautiful inlaid dining tables, whose polished tops theoretically should be infinitely more artistic and pleasing to the eye than mere linen. But the fashion has not "caught on." The most enthusiastic of "no tableclothers" return after a few trial trips to their dainty damask napery.

Do you know the real secret of this? At first sight, the family silver, set forth on shining oak, the white lace bordered mats for plates and the light reflecting on the polished wood, undoubtedly present a very stately, if somewhat inhospitable, appearance as one sits down to soup.

But by the time the second or third course is reached things become a little disordered, when crumbs of bread have been scattered around, and perchance a fish bone or a French bean has fallen from a plate, a syphon has "dripped," or the host has splashed a little white soup upon the oak or mahogany—what then?

Look around again by the time that the savoury is reached and the dissipated appearance of the festive board will forcibly strike you, and cause you to sigh for the snowy cover which concealed disasters of this kind.

For luncheon, a meal not so elaborate as dinner, the no cloth rule is quite popular with hostesses. There is no denying that doilies are much less bother and create much less laundry than a table cloth, for if it becomes spotted it does not mean that a large cloth must be discarded. Because of its saving propensities the uncovered board will undoubtedly remain in favor for luncheon, though it is frowned upon for more elaborate evening functions.

TWO KILLED BY LOCOMOTIVE.

Oak Harbor, Ohio, March 6.—Charles R. Renu, 30, and his uncle, Louis Robideau, 35, were instantly killed when the buggy in which they were riding was struck by an eastbound passenger train on the Lake Shore road at Rocky Ridge, at about midnight last night.

How to "Shed" a Bad Complexion

It's foolish to attempt to cover up or hide a sallow complexion, when you can so easily remove the sallowness, or the complexion itself. Rouge and the like on a brownish skin only emphasize the defect. The better way is to apply pure mercolized wax—the same as you would cold cream—putting it on at night, removing it in the morning with warm water, following with a dash of cold. The effect of a few applications is simply marvelous. The half-dead cuticle is absorbed by the wax painlessly, gradually, in tiny imperceptible particles—revealing the beautiful velvety white new skin beneath.

No woman need have a sallow, blotchy, pimply or freckled complexion if she'll just go to the druggist's, get an ounce of good mercolized wax and use as suggested.—Woman's Realm.

PAPER BAG COOKING

Great System Perfected by M. Soyer, Famous London Chef.

FOR THE SCHOOL BOX FROM HOME.

By Martha McCulloch Williams.

Are you numbered among the many mothers of this great nation who have boys and girls away at school or college? Then you know what a great delight it gives the children to receive from "Mother" a box of home-cooked things to eat, from solid meats, like tu.key and chicken, to the frothiest of sweets.

Right here, good mother, you will find the paper bag a very present help. A plump chicken, a small fine turkey, bag-roasted and well drained and popped inside another bag, lightly greased, packs well, can be eaten without a qualm, and makes a mighty fine cornerstone for the upbuilding of a proper box.

The box from home is the cornerstone of the season's supreme school or college "spread." Wherefore, make it one to honor alike your child and your housewifery. Besides the turkey or the chicken, or the brace of ducks, or the nest of smaller birds safe in their own gravy, put in cakes, pies, tarts, tartlets, sundry small and piquant meat turnovers, indeed, the very choicest things amongst all those heretofore set forth as suitable for paper bag cooking. Make, too, in quantity pricked biscuit—they will be good much longer than the average college boy or girl can keep them.

Here are a few candy suggestions worth consideration even by a "woman" freshman—or sophomore.

Fondant, which is the basis of many candies, is variously made; this is as good a way as any I have found: To each cup of sugar allow a drop of acetic acid and one-third cup of cold water. Cook in a very clean brass or enamel kettle, stirring constantly until it begins to boil. Wipe off any dry sugar from the sides of the kettle, add the acid, cover the kettle and cook without further stirring at gentle heat until the syrup, dropped in cold water, forms a soft ball. Pour out then in a flattish dish, wet with very cold water. When cool, not cold, work with a paddle back and forth until white and creamy, then put in something deep, cover with a clean damp cloth, and set away to ripen. This formula is adapted from observation in a famous candy factory, where huge tubs of fondant stood month after month until the trained sense of the heads said it was just right for use. When ready to use, cut out a good lump, put in an earthen vessel and liquefy over boiling water. Then flavor and color to taste, and either dip into it blanched nuts, dates, figs or crystallised fruit or small rounds of hard fondant. After the first dipping, set them upon a wire rack over a bowl to drain and harden. Dip a second time if you want the candies very superior. If there is not time for this, roll while still soft in powdered sugar and set on waxed paper to dry and harden.

Fondant thus liquid, colored pink, green or yellow, flavored with mint and dropped from a spoon-tip upon waxed paper, makes delectable mint cream. Any other flavor can be used instead of mint. With orange or lemon flavor, after dropping the creams, sprinkle while still soft with finely ground nuts, or stick a tiny bit of cocoanut in the center. Cocoanut cut to shape and cream nuts, shelled whole, make fine candies if they are first covered with stiff fondant and then dipped in the melted stuff, which has been made rich with chocolate. Here, as elsewhere, put in a very little brandy with the chocolate, as a means of accenting its flavor.

Fruit squares are good. To make them, take equal quantities of seeded raisins, well chopped dates cut small, figs steamed and cut up fine, shredded citron, shredded candied peel, shredded fresh cocoanut and shredded blanched almonds. Stir all well together and spread without packing evenly over a well buttered flat dish. Pour upon the mixture boiling hot a taffy made by boiling until it crackles in the teeth, two cups sugar, with one-half cup vinegar and water mixed and one tablespoonful of butter. Let stand till the surface hardens slightly, then with a well-greased knife mark in squares. Break apart when cold and wrap in waxed paper. Pack the wrapped squares inside a paper bag.

Lastly, be sure that almost the biggest cake bagged for the box is a Lady McMillan, which to my mind quite discounts Lady Baltimore. Take for it three and a half cups sifted flour, two cups sifted sugar, one cup blackberry jam, one cup sweet milk, two-thirds cup creamed butter, five whole eggs or yolks of twelve, two teaspoons baking powder, one teaspoon cinnamon, one teaspoon mixed cloves and allspice. Cream butter with part of sugar, add yolks beaten light with rest of sugar, sift flour with baking powder and add alternately with milk and stiff beaten whites. Add spices mixed in half cordial, then jam. Bake in layers put together with icing filled with seeded raisins and chopped English walnuts. Use plain icing on top and sides. Or bake in a large sheet inside a bag, cut square and put together as directed. The essential thing is to fill a big bag with it, so that the spread it graces shall be a huge success.

COW TRADED FOR TURKEY.

Venice, Cal., March 5.—A cow which developed into a "white elephant" and which was traded by the city for a turkey that also has developed into a white elephant, has caused Mayor Holbrook and the Venetian officials a great deal of uneasiness.

Several days ago a cow belonging to William Leach, Washington boulevard, escaped from its pen and strayed to the residence of P. L. Fredericks, East Venice, where, according to the statement of Fredericks, it did considerable damage to his property.

Fredericks took possession of the cow and notified Leach he would hold it until he was reimbursed for the alleged damage. Leach told Fredericks the cow was not worth the damage it did and he would not pay the difference. Leach stated further that Fredericks could keep the cow. Fredericks was not situated to properly take care of the animal and notified the police to make some disposition of it. The police ordered it removed to the city pound.

The cost for feeding caused the city to auction it. The highest bid was made by Al Toenges, a newsboy, who bid $5 and a turkey hen.

The bid was accepted and the turkey was turned over to Mayor Holbrook. The mayor states that the city already is facing a deficit over the transaction and with the feeding of the turkey, which has a ravenous appetite, the deficit will increase.

Milady's Toilet Table

By Mme. D'MILLE.

There are simple home treatments that keep the hair and complexion young looking. Dry shampooing cleans the scalp and hair and makes the hair grow. Just put a cupful of cornmeal in a fruit jar and mix with it an original package of therox; sprinkle a little on the head and brush out. It brushes out easily and leaves the hair clean, bright, wavy and rich in color.

To keep the face youthful and fair, make a simple lotion by dissolving an original package of mayatone in a half pint of witch hazel and rub over the face, neck and arms every morning. Your complexion will soon be smooth, clear, satin-like and free from blemishes.

Wild hairs or fuzzy growths can be made to vanish quickly by applying delatone paste. Mix enough powdered delatone with water to cover the hairy surface; apply and after two or three minutes rub off, wash the skin, and the hairs will be gone.

Chaps, cold sores, pimples, eczema and skin eruptions disappear if you rub Mother's Salve into the affected surfaces before retiring. It quickly heals sores, cuts, burns, scalds, etc. It is antiseptic as well as healing and lessens danger of blood poisoning.

Omelet

To make a delicious omelet, juicy and light without dryness, try this way. Break the eggs in a bowl; for four add two tablespoonfuls of warm water. Beat with a fork six or eight times—just enough to mix. Drop in a half teaspoonful of butter cut in several pieces. Have the pan smoking hot. Drop in it a half teaspoonful of butter and shake violently so as to quickly grease the bottom of the pan. Pour in the eggs, hold the pan over the hottest part of the fire and shake, turning the pan round that it may cook evenly. With a fork lift up the bottom layer here and there, allowing the liquid egg to flow underneath. Keep up the shaking. When the mixture is creamy and almost set sprinkle over salt and pepper and with a spatula or any knife with a flexible blade begin to roll or "fold" the omelet, then turn it out quickly on a heated dish.

Egg Timbales.

Break four eggs in a bowl and beat enough to mix thoroughly; add two cupfuls and a half of milk, a half teaspoonful of salt and a dash of pepper and strain. Butter small moulds, sprinkle the sides with chopped parsley and fill with the liquid. Stand in a pan of warm water and place in a moderate oven until set in the centre like a baked custard. Turn out on a platter, pour tomato or bread sauce round them.

Mathias App, veteran shoe merchant nd widely known pioneer citizen of ort Wayne, died at 6:15 o'clock Tues- ay evening at his home, 332 Wash- ington boulevard, west, at the ad- anced age of 82 years. Death followed general break-down due to his ad- anced years, and the end of his long nd active career came quietly and eacefully as though the aged man had ut fallen into a natural sleep.

Since last July Mr. App's health had een declining, though he had been able o pay occasional visits to his store p to February 13, his birthday. Since hat time he had been confined closely o his room. Friends had realized for ome days that the end was very near, ut up to Tuesday morning the aged an was able to converse with those bout him, and until within a few oments of his demise he recognized he members of his family gathered bout his bedside.

Was Native of Germany.

Mr. App was born in Ertingen, Rieds- ng, Germany, Feb. 13, 1830, learning he trade of a shoemaker in his native own, coming to America and to Fort Vayne in 1852 at the age of 22 years. e was employed for some years in arious shoe establishments of the city, ut in 1860 he embarked in business pon his own account in a building on alhoun street, located on the present ite of the Tri-State Loan and Trust ompany. At this time he was in part- ership with his brother-in-law, Paul ctcher, and later the firm moved o a new location across the street, in building on the present site of the esey Flower store.

On Present Site Fifty Years.

Dissolving the partnership with Mr. tcher, Mr. App a few years later pur- hased the lot at 916 Calhoun street, rected a frame building and moved into he location which the App store has ow occupied continuously for more han half a century. In recent years is sons, Clement and Martin App, have een associated with their father in usiness, but the firm name has re- ained continuously M. App.

Mr. App became a member of St. ary's Catholic church as soon as he ame to Fort Wayne, was long active in he work of the congregation and re- ained to his death a devoted follower f the faith. He was a charter mem- er of St. Carolus Borromaens society nd participated in the fiftieth anniver- ary celebration of that organization in 910. He was also a member of the chool society of St. Mary's church.

He was united in marriage in 1858 to iss Rosina Wagner, of this city, and heir wedded life was markedly happy. rs. App's death occurred in 1898. Sur- iving are six of seven children born to he union—Mrs. Julia Deininger, Mrs. lizabeth Schwartz, Henry J., Martin nd Clement P. App and Miss Anna pp, all of this city. Mr. App also pro- ided a home for and reared his nephew, aul Ketcher, who is now located at St. Joe, Mich. There are twenty-six grand- children and six great-grandchildren.

Thin Folks Made Plump

Samose Ideal Flesh Builder, Says Druggist Meyer Bros. Co.

Thin people are simply suffering from want of nourishment!

If you are thin, it is because the food you eat is not assimilated and passes through the system without building up the flesh and tissue as it should.

You can readily get plump and rosy by using Samose, a tissue forming food which when taken with the meals, immediately becomes a flesh building and life giving element in the blood.

Samose builds up the system, puts flesh on the bones, brings back the glow of health to the pallid cheek and removes the tired and languid feeling which is the result of exhaustion and low vitality.

Meyer Bros. Co. are introducing Samose to their customers and recommend it highly. They give the best proof of their belief that Samose will do all that is claimed for it by offering to refund the money if it fails to increase the weight and restore good health.

WILL CUT OUT THE MIDDLEMAN.

Marion County Farmers to Incorporate an Association.

Indianapolis, Ind., March 6.—For the purpose of eliminating the "middleman" so far as possible in buying and selling, the farmers of Pike township, Marion county, have formed and will incorporate the Farmers' Co-operative Association of New Augusta.

The capital stock of the association is $10,000 and it will have 100 members, each holding one share of stock. The only paid officer will be the purchasing and selling agent.

Leaders in the movement say it will be possible to save from 15 to 25 per cent on household goods and farm supplies by buying direct from the manufacturer in large lots and that a great economy and increased profits will be gained by pooling farm and garden products and selling them by carload lots.

Another meeting of the association is to be held March 13.

Herman E. Snyder has been elected president and Henry J. Find vice president. William A. Artman will be the purchasing and selling agent.

GERMAN STRIKERS RESUME.

Berlin, March 5.—The men at one of the three mines at Bochum, who struck unexpectedly yesterday, resumed work today and the movement has not spread to other mines. There are prospects, however, of a general mining strike in Germany. The answers of the mine owners to the miners demand for a 15 per cent. increase of wages are due today. The owners insist on negotiating only with committees appointed by the employes in each mine with whom the existing contracts were made, and entirely disregarding the trades union.

The government has prepared the necessary police measures.

BEAUTIFUL HAIR AT SMALL COST

A Simple Remedy Beautifies the Hair, Cures Dandruff, Stops Falling Hair.

What a pity it is to see so many people with thin, wispy hair, faded or streaked with gray, and realize that most of these people might have soft, glossy, abundant hair of beautiful color and lustre if they would but use the proper treatment. There is no necessity for gray hair under sixty-five years of age and there is no excuse for anyone, young or old, having thin, straggling hair, either full of dandruff or heavy and rank smelling with excessive oil.

You can bring back the natural color of your hair in a few days and forever rid yourself of any dandruff and loose hairs, and make your hair grow strong and beautiful by using Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy. For generations common garden Sage has been used for restoring and preserving the color of the hair; and Sulphur is recognized by Scalp Specialists as being excellent for treatment of hair and scalp troubles.

If you are troubled with dandruff or itching scalp, or if your hair is losing its color or coming out, get a fifty cent bottle of Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur from your druggist and notice the improvement in the appearance of your hair after a few days treatment. Special Agents, Meyer Bros Co.

HOTELS ARE TOO SMALL FOR THEM

Arndt Will Have an Army of Men Report for the Spring Training.

DEPEND ON VETERANS

South Bend, Ind., March 6.—It has been said around the circuit that if Harry Arndt persisted in adding players to the list of candidates for the local Central league club South Bend hotel owners would have to enlarge present buildings and some one would have to build a new one. That may be true, but South Bend fans will be assured of a record breaking ball team as the recruits will have to display their best to outclass some of the veterans of the game who have signed with the Greenstockings.

With nearly fifty men on the roster and all of these having a record or two behind them, Manager Arndt will be confronted with a big task when he begins to weed out in the spring. This goes to show that Harry is not afraid of work and is after the best for local fans, in the baseball line. The players are all well recommended by the "who's who" in baseball and by the way they are touted by baseball bugs there will be something doing when the squads line up for spring practice games.

The directors are behind Arndt in anything that he proposes for the good of the team and are confident that the manager can build a formidable nine that will hold its own against the other teams in the Big Central. A number of managers on the circuit are doing the same thing that Manager Arndt was forced to do—to build up an entirely new team. The only difference is that some of the chiefs are laying aside all the veteran players and relying on the new blood for the nucleus of the team. Harry is relying on some veterans for the nucleus, and is of the opinion that the old players will add stability to the club and give the new players a good example in judgment which they will lack to a great extent.

Anderson, the latest to sign with Harry, is a veteran and is considered a great asset to the club. He will be able to coach the youngsters and show them how to reserve their strength, when to act and when not to. The other veterans can also help the manager in the same way and as Harry has a great deal to do in looking after the regulars he will have some one on whom he can depend in looking after the younger stock. There are not a great many of these, but there are enough of the "garden lot" aspirants to give some one a great deal of worry and the veterans will be able to handle and prepare them for the contest.

South Bend fans will get a good example of a team made up of youngsters when Terre Haute opens here April 24. Manager Grant, the former Bender leader, has adopted the "younger blood" motto in choosing his 1912 recruits and has let many of the veterans go. One of these, Cy Alberts, seems to have left the game for good. Cy has been a grand old figure on the Central diamond for a number of years, but the Terre-ir boss thought him past his days and offered him for sale. Now Cy is using his arm with good effect in the engine cab of an Indiana railroad. He is reported to be shoveling coal at a great rate and may find a comeback in his new vocation.

TRY BATHS FOR LEGS.

Buz Wetzel Will Report Ahead of the Other Greenstockings.

South Bend, Ind., March 6.—"Buz" Wetzel, third baseman, has written Manager Arndt from Roseville, O., that he will come to South Bend two weeks before the reporting date. He will probably spend most of his time at St. Joseph and Benton Harbor, Mich., taking baths. Wetzel is bothered with bad legs in the spring and has to pay them special consideration in order to round into proper playing trim. He does not accumulate much weight during the winter time, however, and has little difficulty in getting down to the mark where he can put forth his best efforts.

PRESIDENT WILL TRY FOR RECORD

Is Modest But Will Try to Maintain Standard in Shop League.

IS AFTER TWO CLUBS

John Wessel, jr., president of the Fort Wayne Shop League Baseball league, is a real modest president and he does not expect to get out and revolutionize things in the organization, but he will try to make a record and close the season with just a little more money in the treasury than was there at the close of last season.

In this he has one big task because President J. V. Wilson and Secretary D. W. Bolt, who retired last night, have been hustlers and both got an enthusiastic vote of thanks for their work.

In the first place the new president will have a couple of assistants who have always been hard workers in the league and both of whom are good sportmen. Johnny Alt of the Rolling Mills club, is the secretary, and Merritt Crosby of the Western Gas Construction company, is the treasurer.

Both of these men have shown their worth and their election was an earned recognition of their services. The league got a good start last night on the work of the season.

As a starter the president will ascertain whether or not the Packard Piano company and the Bass Foundry and Machine company will remain in the organization. As a matter of courtesy each was given a week in which to post forfeits and failure to do this will be taken as an intimation that they do not want to belong.

Harry McManigal quit as manager at Bass' and there has been some delay in organizing, but the Shop league officials believe the concern will be represented when the first game is played.

The Packard company is a little uncertain. The club that represented the institution last season had a tough struggle and made a bad showing and this has made it difficult to reorganize. A chance will be given the Kerr Murray Manufacturing company to get in and the Wayne Oil Tank company is almost a certainty.

The campaign for advertising for the score card will be taken up after the next meeting. This is the source of revenue from which expenses are obtained and in former years any balance left over has gone to the playgrounds' fund.

The new president of the league is deputy in the local office of the Indiana Free Employment bureau and this is his first flight in Athletics. He apparently has a good grasp of the situation and is thoroughly equipped to make the league a success.

STILL NEEDS THAT PUNCH.

McFarland Had Hogan All But Out But Couldn't Deliver.

New York, March 6.—Packey McFarland, of Chicago, made "One Round" Hogan of California, look like a novice in ten rounds here last night, Packey winning all the way with ease. The Chicago speed marvel battered and beat Hogan from the first gong to the last and came out of the mill with barely a scratch. He bewildered Hogan in the first round with his lightning like rights and lefts and never after did the westerner appear to have a chance.

McFarland showed considerable improvement since his last appearance here and seemed to fight with renewed youth and energy. It looked for a time that Hogan would be unable to weather the storm of blows at him by Packey, but he stuck to the finish gamely.

TURNED DOWN THE OFFER.

South Bend, Ind., March 6.—Steve Kane is said to have rejected the offer of President Carson for a job on his Central league staff, claiming the salary was far too small. Reduction of the umpire wage is included in the economy campaign of the Central league. Kane umpired in this league several years ago, and was regarded as one of the best.

NEW OFFICIALS OF FORT WAYNE SHOP BASE BALL LEAGUE

JOHN WESSEL, JR., President.

JOHN ALT. Secretary.

VETERAN TRAINS HARD EVERY DAY

Cy Young Leads the Players in Road Work at Hot Springs.

TAKING OFF WEIGHT

Hot Springs, Ark., March 6.—Down the dusty avenue leading from Whitington park, drenched with perspiration, but still heavily bundled in sweaters, and so intent on working off the last ounce of extra avoirdupois that he had no time to acknowledge the greetings of old friends, a stalwart, gigantic figure tore its way.

Leading the brigade of major and minor leaguers that followed with less ambition in his wake, the dripping giant turned into Central avenue, sprinted up the avenue amid the chorus of applauding yells that greeted his appearance. For it was Old Cy Young, the hero of Poall, doing his regular daily marathon run in his fourteenth annual training stunt at Hot Springs.

Other veterans come and go, struggle with the baths, do a half-hearted romp over the neighboring hills and then rest up to get over the leg weariness and delude themselves with the idea they have reduced but this is not Cy Young's method. And this may be one of the many reasons why he is now in better condition than he has ever been in the spring, why inside of three days' constant workout, he has accomplished much more than some of the youngsters who have been here a fortnight.

Leads in Long Walk.

Old Cy, like old wine, must improve with age. He induced Bill Carrigan, Jake Stahl and a few other innocents to follow him on a ten-mile hike through the Ozarks. Cy led all the rest to the finish line, but Stahl and Carrigan, while completing the trip, were the only ones who were shamed into anything like schedule time. That's why the two members of the Red Sox team appeared in uniform but once. They never intend to play the game of "Follow the Leader" again with the grand old man of baseball in the van.

Young, Purdue, Anderson and Carrigan are the only Boston players who, so far are numbered in the squad that is working out here daily, but there are enough of other teams to recruit the ranks of an outlaw league.

HOLMES WONDERING A BIT.

Grand Rapids Catcher Does Not Know Just How He Stands.

Dayton, O., March 6.—Howard "Ducky" Holmes is wondering what disposition Grand Rapids will make of him. This clever catcher balked on signing with Smith this year at a reduced salary, especially since the season in the Central league has been shortened. He made Smith a proposition to buy his release which Smith accepted, but later called off when an Eastern club put in a bid for his services. Holmes has heard nothing from Smith for some time and does not know whether he has been sold or not. He prefers to get out of the Central league. He believes he can make good in class AA or A company and thinks he could land with a team in a higher league if he were free to dicker for himself.

MAY GIVE ANSON TEAM.

Chicago, Ill., March 6.—"Cap" A. C. Anson is to join other former major league stars in being connected with clubs in the Columbia league. According to information, given out by Powers yesterday, Anson will own a franchise in the newly formed organization. What club Anson will be connected with he refused to state, but said it probable would be either Pittsburg or Cincinnati. The deal for a franchise has been going on for several days between Anson and Powers.

OUTLAWS GET PIRATE PARK.

Pittsburg, Pa., March 6.—Final papers have been passed in the deal by which the Pittsburg club in the new United States league takes title to the lease on Exhibition park, the old stamping grounds of the Pirates. The park is in a weather-beaten state, but the Pittsburg promoters declare they will rush the improvements and have it ready in time for the opening game here.

KENOSHA TO HAVE TWO.

Kenosha, Wis., March 6.—Kenosha is to have two boxing shows in three days. Packey McFarland and Kid Burns were matched to appear there Friday, March 15, for ten rounds. Eddie McGoorty and Hugo Kelly will travel the same route on the following Monday. These cards are being staged by different clubs, but the same arena will be used. The skating rink is the scene of all fistic controversies up there and seats around 2,000

PLAYER WHO BROKE UPON BALL LEAGUE

Chicago, Ill., March 6.—The man who broke the bank at Monte Carlo isn't one, two, three with the man who broke up the league at Panama and who is being sought by the Cubs. He is Pitcher Kellog, who jumped the Lexington team of the Blue Grass league at the close of the 1910 campaign to go to the canal zone, where his speed and cunning were such as to badly rattle opposing teams. Kellog hurled his nine to victory and toward the close of the season the other clubs absolutely refused to bat against him. As Kellog's teammates insisted that he be allowed to pitch the other clubs quit and the league went to the wall. President Murphy heard of Kellog's prowess during his recent visit to Central America and opened negotiations with the Lexington club for his purchase. Just before Murphy asked the Blue Grass leaguers for terms, Manager Hogan Yancy of the Lexington team, received word from Kellog that he was anxious to return to the fold of organized ball and wanted to know how Yancy stood on such a proposition. Yancey replied that he had no objections to the prodigal son stunt and the athlete immediately wired that the Lexington club could expect him to be on the job during the impending clash.

After the offer from President Murphy was received in Lexington, Yancey announced that the Pirates were also in the field for Kellog. Yancey naturally wants to the try the Marty O'Toole trade stunt pulled by Mike Kelley at St. Paul in 1911, and with the Cubs as Dreyfuss' opponents he, no doubt, expected to hang up a record price for the sale of a class D player. However, so far as the Cubs are concerned, there will not be much spirited bidding as Murphy yesterday declared that he had made what he considered a fair offer for the athlete in question and that he would not stand for any fabulous figuring.

Murphy would like to have Kellog, as the reports which he heard of his prowess while in Panama lead him to believe that Kellog is a combination of two Rubes, Marquard and Waddell. The natives say that Kellok has so much speed that a ball thrown by Amos Rusic in his prime would look like a balloon attempting to ride through a gale. Like all southpaws, Kellog is unable to locate the plate with any degree of certainty but Murphy believes that he can be taught to overcome this fault. This proneness to bean the enemy was the reason for the timidity of batters in facing Kellog and was also responsible for the withdrawal of the teams which broke up the Panama league.

When matters were brought to a crisis along the equator by the fear of Kellog's good left arm and when the league suddenly blew up, it was decided to allow Kellog to pitch a certain number of games for every team in the league this year in case the circuit was organized again. Since Yancey said that Kellog has decided to forsake the vicinity of the big ditch this rule, the most unusual in the history of baseball, is made unnecessary.

AFRAID HE'LL TRY IT.

Indianapolis, Ind., March 6.—President Watkins is worrying lest Jimmy Burke, the Indianapolis manager, comes out with the statement that he will play third base this season. Jimmy is at Hot Springs now, training with the pro-season mob and is getting around like a young colt. Watkins wants him to devote all his time to the managerial end of the affairs and let some youngster take the third bag.

W. AND D. TEAM WINS IN SERIES

Holds Its Own in the Race for Honors in Fort Wayne League.

HAAS LEADS BOWLERS

Although the Wolf & Dessauer bowlers were without the services of George Harkenrider last night they managed to pull two victories out of three games with the Helt-Miller-Lau club and are in position to battle with the Germanias for the lead.

Henschen, substitute on the team, bowled for Harkenrider and was second high man, working consistently all the way through. Tony Haas led the procession, however, with two doubles and an average better than two hundred.

For the losers Carl Suedhoff got off to a bad start but doubled in the second and third and beat Rupp for high score and average. Every game in the series was fought hard and there was a difference of only two pins in the second. The scores follow:

KEEPS OTHER TEAM ON DEFENSE

"In every game which I have played in the major leagues I have done my best to keep the other team on the defensive," says Ty Cobb. "This is true in all parts of the game—batting, fielding and base running.

"For example, when I am on the bases I try continually to get as close to the home plate as possible, overlooking no opportunity. It's the keeping your eyes and thoughts on the sack ahead that enables one to score runs. I believe in taking every chance within reason to advance on bases. It's a simple mathematical problem, this base running. It's a well known fact that every man has his own way of sliding; he cannot improve on that. But the fielders meet with a different kind of a play on the runner almost every ball that's pitched or thrown. So the chances are in favor of the runner as against the fielder. That's why you can afford to take chances. There's always the possibility of the fielder dropping a throw, mussing up a fly or throwing poorly.

"Personally I have made it a rule to go as far as I can while running bases. I have been particularly lucky in this respect. I never pay any attention to the coachers because I believe that a man on base should use his own judgment. He has to know in a flash what to do in the case of a fly ball, a grounder or a throw. The fielders, on the other hand, have the plays figured out in advance. They think beforehand whether to throw to second, to third or wherever the right play may be. But the runner must think after the ball is hit or thrown.

"I've often been asked how I keep up my average in batting. That's a difficult question to answer. It's a lot easier to show how you hit a certain kind of a ball than to tell how it's done. I stand in the easiest position I can at the plate, keep my eyes always on the ball and then swing with a free motion. That's very well as far as it goes, but you really bat differently against each pitcher. In time you come to know the kind of balls they throw and thus can be prepared for their offerings.

"All of the successful pitchers are hard to hit. Walsh and White of the White Sox, Coombs and Bender of the Athletics, Brown of the Cubs, in fact all of the good ones have their individual ways, and you must learn to fit your style into theirs. I found 'Doc' White one of the toughest pitchers to hit I ever faced. His wide curve fooled me time and again. I found, after a while that I had been standing too close to the plate and that his curve broke in at me sharply, giving me no time to hit freely. Then I moved back in the box as far as I could, and found that the ball reached me after the biggest part of the curve was over. As he had to put the ball over the plate I had more time to hit at it or leave it alone.

"Against such men as Walsh, the speedy throwers, you have to sort of chop the ball rather than hit it. I have heard that Walsh throws one spitter out of every seven balls, but don't you believe it. He's a big healthy fellow, and sends the spitter across the plate far more frequently than that. You not only have to step into his throws but also have to step forward if you want to get at the ball before that big break comes.

"In batting you first have to have the eye, then the physical ability to hit where your eye directs. And, another thing, is to keep your nerve. Many times during a season situations arise where you are hard put to it—where the easiest thing is to back down. But this is quitting: no player is a success who quits in a ball game. He loses confidence in himself. Sometimes you are liable to come near losing your nerve when you've had a bad spell of hitting, and when the fans and newspapers start rapping you. Then's the time to buck up to keep on trying all the harder.

"When I started out to play baseball I had no idea of continuing in the game. I had been going to school and my father died. This changed conditions and since that time I have been able to earn more money in baseball than I could in business. So I have remained in it. If a man does the right thing in baseball all the time and is honest with himself he can be successful. For it's the man that makes baseball, not baseball the man."

CURES RHEUMATISM

Rheumatism is one of the oldest of human ailments, and yet the causes which produce it was a question long in doubt. It was thought at one time to be a disease of the bones entirely; its origin was also attributed to some specific affection of the nerves, and various other theories which proved to be wrong, were put forward in an effort to find a cure for the trouble. Under these conditions the treatment of Rheumatism was very unsatisfactory and only of a temporary nature. When it was determined beyond doubt that Rheumatism is a blood disease, brought about by an excess of uric acid in the circulation, then its cure became a matter of purifying the blood and thus destroying its source. Because it is the best of all blood purifiers S. S. S. has been the most successful of all treatments for Rheumatism.

When this uric acid gets into the circulation it causes a partial fermentation of the blood, which changes it from a thick, rich stream, to a thin, acrid fluid, whose nourishing properties are greatly impaired. Through the circulation the uric acid is carried to every muscle, joint and nerve of the body, and then the pains and aches of Rheumatism commence. The longer the blood is allowed to remain in this acrid, weakened condition the more severe will the disease become. Gradually the muscles harden and lose their elasticity, the joints begin to stiffen, and frequently calculous deposits collect and form knots at the finger joints.

The pains of Rheumatism may often be temporarily relieved by the application of hot cloths, liniments, plasters, etc., but as such treatment does not reach the blood, no one should expect permanent benefit from it.

There is just one way to cure Rheumatism and that is to purify the blood of the uric acid. S. S. S. does this more quickly and certainly than any other medicine. S. S. S. eliminates this uric acid because it is the most penetrating of all blood remedies. It is made entirely of roots, herbs and barks compounded and scientifically blended in such manner as to make it a medicine that acts through the circulation with good effect on every portion of the system. S. S. S. cures Rheumatism permanently because it removes the cause on which the disease thrives. S. S. S. contains no harmful minerals, it is perfectly safe for every one. Write for our special book on Rheumatism and learn of the great success S. S. S. has had in curing it. Any medical advice desired will be furnished you. No charge for the book or advice. S. S. S. is sold at drug stores.

pulling the trolleys off cars all along the line," he said. "The cars were stoned, people driven out and motormen and conductors frightened off. I saw one man with up two ch... of ice and hurl them. I put him under arrest and was pelted with ice.

Tells of Clubbing.

"One officer came to my assistance. I held up my club and threatened any man who came near. An Armenian who struck me on the head, a particularly hard blow, was the only man I hit. I did strike him as hard as I could. I saw there also a carpenter wounded, assaulted by strikers, after they had dragged him from the car.

"The crowds were usually led by women and children. They were always in the front rank and sometimes women had children in their arms. Other women carried flags. On the first morning Etto, the strike leader, was about the mills giving orders but when the demonstrations took place he always disappeared."

Describing the killing of Officer Benoit and a woman Captain Sullivan said:

"I want to say that the man who killed the woman, was the man who killed Officer Benoit. We know that man and we will get him. It has been testified here that the officer killed the woman. Officer Benoit carried a 32 revolver and she was killed with a 38 calibre revolver.

Will Not Reveal Murderer.

"Who was the man you have in mind?"

"I should not tell you that. It would defeat the end of justice."

"Was he a striker?"

"We think he was, and the woman killed was also a striker. I think that shooting started as pure detachment to raise the belief that there was no intention to kill anybody. The police did not shoot."

Captain Sullivan also told of another officer who was stabbed during the same outbreak. Another method of the strikers to arouse trouble, was the concerted plan of the strikers in flocking through the stores, passing in and out without buying anything.

"They had our storekeepers in a state of terror ... for some time business was practically at a standstill though the stores were not closed," he said.

Offers a new Version.

Captain Sullivan said the strike committee had published broadcast that the "children were going to go despite Captain Sullivan's order." Just before the time of the trouble at the depot, he said, a system of picketing by women had been inaugurated.

"They felt that they were martyrs, heroines, and wanted to go to jail," said the captain.

"These women were in jail for assaults on the day of the trouble at the station and their children were brought to them in the jails. Those were the children described here as being locked up. Their fathers had brought them there and left them.

"The women and children brought to the station after the trouble at the depot never saw a cell. They never were put in cells."

Describing the trouble at the depot Captain Sullivan said he had twenty-four officers with him and gave orders that all loiterers be driven away.

"The depot was full of people," he said. "I went in and saw the settees filled with women and children. I said to them, 'Any of you who are leaving Lawrence or sending children away because you can't have assistance are under a misapprehension. I want to say to you you will be taken care of by the authorities of Massachusetts.'

Explains the Seizure.

"There were about 100 people there and all of them left but fifteen. To those who remained I said 'I don't know you people, but before you leave Lawrence I want to know whether you are the parents or guardians of these children and where you are taking them.'

"I got no answer from any of them. In a few minutes these few children were gathered up and started for the train. I started two lines of policemen and prevented them from going to that train. We put them in the auto truck and took them to the station. No one was clubbed or hurt. There were no children thrown into that truck. They were lifted there by strong men."

"Why were these women and children taken to the station?" Representative Dalzell asked.

"Because of complaints we had received before and because these people absolutely refused any information."

QUIET IN LAWRENCE.

Lawrence, Mass., March 6.—Comparative quiet prevailed during the hours preceding the opening of the textile mills today. The most important addition to the ranks of returning operatives was the loom fixtures, who voted last night to accept the five per cent. wage increase offered by the mill owners.

Twelve arrests were made up to 7:30 a. m., but all were for minor offenses. Half of the number taken into custody were women, who had in their possession a mixture of pepper, sand and spice.

It was estimated that during the past three days not more than 3,000 persons have resumed work in the factories. The main body of strikers, it is thought, intend to hold out in the hope of securing further concessions.

GRAIN AND PROVISIONS.

Chicago Market.

Chicago, Ill., March 6.—Wheat receipts on a larger scale than bulls had looked for gave the market today an easy tone. May started at $1.03¼@1.03¾ and sagged to $1.03¼.

A sharp rally ensued, owing to big export flour sales and because of improved cash demand. The close was strong, with May ¾c net higher at $1.04⅛@1.04¼.

Generally favorable weather conditions and a selling attitude by farmers made the corn market weak. May opened at 70⅝c to 70¾c and dropped to 70⅜@70½c. The corn market later recovered with wheat. Closing figures were firm at 1¼c for May, ⅝c over last night.

Support was poor in oats. May started at 52⅜c to 52⅝c, and descended to 52⅛c. There was rather free unloading of hog products as a result of the weakness in grain. Initial transactions with July delivery were $16.17 for pork, $9.60 for lard and $8.95 for ribs.

STOCKS AND BONDS.

The Day on Wall Street.

New York, March 6.—Leading stocks opened with fractional declines today. United States Steel, Union Pacific and Reading were dealt in moderately and some of the specialties were slightly under yesterday's closing prices. Canadian Pacific and Missouri Pacific were among the few stocks that showed opening gains. Minneapolis, St. Paul & Sault Ste. Marie advanced 1¼ in the initial trading.

Recessions were due more to realizing for profits than to any other cause. Some improvement was noted before noon, New York Central responding to the "extra" dividends declared by several of the Vanderbilt lines, including Lake Shore & Michigan Southern. Bonds were steady.

The market closed heavy. Prices were almost motionless for long intervals in the final hour, until just at the close, when dealings became more active and the market dropped.

RECEPTION FOR HELEN GOULD

Wabash Employes and Y. M. C. A. Workers to Entertain Her.

MEETING TO BE IN PERU Y. M. C. A.

Pennsylvania Has Costly Freight Wreck Near Nevada, Ohio.

People interested in Railroad Y. M. C. A. work in this section of the country will be given an opportunity of meeting Miss Helen Gould, of New York, who has done much for the association and particularly for the Peru branch of it. Miss Gould will spend the afternoon and evening Thursday, March 14, in Peru and will be the guest of the Y. M. C. A. in that city. If it is agreeable to the distinguished visitor, she will be given an automobile ride over the city and pay a visit to the winter quarters of the Wallace circus in the afternoon and in the evening, from 7:30 to 10 o'clock, she will be tendered a reception at the Y. M. C. A. rooms. A committee, of which J. M. Hughes, chief clerk to Supt. J. C. Sullivan, is the chairman, is now at work making arrangements for the entertainment of Miss Gould. On the date named Miss Gould will be on her way from New York to St. Louis and will pass through Fort Wayne on the Continental limited at 11:20 o'clock. Her private car will be out out of the train at Peru and held there until after the reception, when it will be attached to train No. 3 and the distinguished occupant will continue her journey to St. Louis. Several Y. M. C. A. workers from this city will go to Peru to meet Miss Gould.

NO CONVENTION RATES.

Delegates and Others Must Put Up the Full Fare.

From passenger circles in Chicago comes the information that the Central and Western Passenger associations will not make special rates to the democratic and republican conventions at Baltimore and Chicago this year. The regular fare of two cents per mile in each direction and summer tourist fares will be the only offerings made to the delegates to these conventions, the traffic officials say. The question will come up at the meeting of the Central Passenger association in Chicago next week. The fate of the summer excursion and Sunday excursion fares will also be decided next week. Included in these will be Niagara Falls and Atlantic City, in which Fort Wayne people will be interested. Of course, Sunday rates to the lake resorts hereabouts will not be affected by action taken at the Chicago meeting next week.

WRECK AT NEVADA.

Fifteen Carloads of Coal Piled on Pennsylvania Tracks.

A westbound coal train on the Pennsylvania in charge of Conductor Louis H. Brown and Engineer C. I. Hale was in a bad mix-up near Nevada, Ohio, last night. A broken car caused the derailment of fifteen of the cars, all loaded with coal, which tore up one of the tracks and distributed the fuel over the right-of-way for a considerable distance, completely blocking both tracks for awhile. The wreck crews were called from this city and Crestline and an hour or two after the accident they had the eastbound track open, but the westbound track was not cleared of wreckage and repaired until some time this morning. Fortunately none of the crew was hurt.

TOLEDO CAR BLOCKADE.

The situation in the car blockade at Toledo is little changed, according to the reports from that city. Last Monday it is said that 8,000 cars were still tied up in that city and in the number of cars affected by the blockade, the Hocking Valley led, having over 2,000 of them in the yards in Toledo. Most of these cars are loaded with coal and they are badly needed at the mines in southern Ohio. All of the roads running into Toledo are affected by the blockade and the efforts of the officials are being concentrated in breaking the blockade and getting the cars out of Toledo. Supt. J. C. Sullivan, of the Wabash, has spent the greater part of the past two weeks at Toledo.

HEARS OF FRIEND'S MISFORTUNE.

E. K. Allen, of the Fort Wayne Electric works, was advised yesterday of the serious illness of G. L. Towne, chief clerk to the Nickel Plate trainmaster of the Cleveland division. He is seriously afflicted with cancer of the stomach and is now at his home in Conneaut. Mr. Towne was a schoolmate of Mr. Allen and the friendship that began in the schoolroom has been maintained since. Mr. Towne is quite well known in Nickel Plate circles in this city. He and his wife were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Allen a few months ago.

LOOKING AT BEST FOUNDRY.

The Dodge Brothers, of Detroit, were here today inspecting the best brass foundry in the country. They are engaged in the manufacture of brass parts for automobiles in Detroit and their present plant being inadequate, they are going to rebuild on a more extensive scale. With this end in view, they came here to look at the brass foundry at the Fort Wayne Electric works, which is the acme of foundry construction and equipment in the opinion of all who have investigated it.

INSPECT SUPPLY DEPARTMENTS.

Messrs. Rice, Conners and Luddington, from the supplies department of the Santa Fe system, who have been engaged to make an expert inspection into the supplies department of the Wabash, arrived here yesterday and after investigating methods of handling the work at the Wabash storeroom, they left this morning for Toledo, accompanied by Division Storekeeper H. W. Hurst, who will remain with them during their inspection of all of the supply quarters on the Peru and Detroit divisions.

GARY MAN IDENTIFIED.

Check for $43.42, issued by the American Sheet and Tinplate company, of Gary, found in the pocket of the deceased was the means of identification of the man killed by Pennsylvania passenger train No. 23 one-half miles west of Gary Monday. His name was Joseph Yekas, a Hungarian, and he had been employed in the tin works only a few weeks.

NEW MEN AT SHOPS.

Machinist Louis Hickman, late of the Illinois Central shops at Burnside, and Machinist Fred Williams, recently employed at the Western Gas works, took employment in the Wabash shops this morning. Jacob Hoelle, a blacksmith's helper, also took employment at the Wabash shops this morning.

HAD THUMB CRUSHED.

C. H. Flickinger, a helper in the Pennsylvania blacksmith shop, got one of his thumbs between the sheers he was operating and the piece of iron he was cutting and the digit was badly cut and bruised. The accident happened at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon and it will disable Mr. Flickinger several days.

ENGINEER TOURGEE VERY ILL.

William Tourgee, one of the old and well known Pennsylvania engineers, is dangerously ill with heart disease and asthma. His condition Saturday was alarming, but he revived somewhat and is resting easier today, though he is still very sick. Mr. Tourgee has been ailing for a long time and has not worked for over a year.

IMPORTANT AUXILIARY MEETING.

Nickel Plate division No. 513, Grand International Auxiliary to the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, will hold an important meeting in the hall at Cherry and West Main street Thursday afternoon. The secretary, Mrs. T. E. Short, says that it is important to have all of the members present.

PARTY HAS BEEN POSTPONED.

The pedro party which was arranged for next Friday afternoon by Division 98, Grand International Auxiliary to the B. L. E., has been indefinitely postponed. Notice will be given when it is to be held.

LOST PART OF FINGER.

F. X. Miller, for a quarter of a century employed as a blacksmith by the Pennsylvania, had the end of the third finger of his left hand crushed off yesterday afternoon, when he got it beneath a heavy piece of metal.

INDUSTRIAL NOTES.

Wabash Yard Master C. F. Malcolm is taking a lay off to attend to some private affairs.

After an illness of three weeks, Boilermaker D. A. Manier resumed work in the Pennsylvania shops this morning.

Machinist Charles Balzer is assisting his folks to move into new quarters today and is off duty for that purpose.

E. J. Ehrman, who had his eyes injured while at work in the Pennsylvania machine shop last week, has recovered and resumed work.

Robert Larimore, a Lake Shore operator, is quite sick with appendicitis and may have to submit to a surgical operation.

J. M. Zollars, Felix Logan, Henry Regel, O. S. Adams, J. P. Breihof, E. J. Leeper and W. H. Tegeder, Pennsylvania employes are off duty on account of sickness.

Switch engine 816, from the Wabash yards in Logansport will come here for repairs. It figured in a collision in the Logansport yards Tuesday and was pretty badly battered up.

D. Carchedi, an Italian who was employed in the Pennsylvania erecting shop, left today for New York, where he expects to remain with some relatives.

The C. & O. railroad has abandoned the old style method of having drinking cups for public use in the cars and according to the present regulation there will be no cups furnished on the cars.

The Indiana railroad commission ordered the four railroads entering Vincennes to submit plans for a modern union station by April 2. The commission upheld the citizens in rejecting a proposition to remodel the old station.

J. McCormick fell from one of the cranes in the Pennsylvania shops yesterday while adjusting some of the parts which had become deranged, and struck his head on a piece of iron. A gash two or three inches long was cut in his forehead.

A peculiar verdict was rendered in the Davies circuit court when George Hoffman, a traveling man, was awarded $4,500 damages for shattered nerves received in being an enforced witness to the death of Bert Curry, a Thorntown boy, who was killed when a passenger train struck a street car in which the two men, traveling companions, were riding, at a crossing in Vincennes.

Henry Zollinger, the Pennsylvania millwright who came home to meet his brother, recently returned from Alaska, left for Cleveland at noon, accompanied by his daughter, Miss Elma, and son, Oscar, who will visit him there a few days. Mr. Zollinger has been engaged in installing the equipment for a power plant at Cleveland for the Pennsylvania ever since last November and will not finish the work before six or seven weeks.

BIG FIGHT TO COME APRIL 23

Date is Fixed for Republican Delegate Convention.

AUBURN TO HAVE IT

Republican District Chairman A. J. Vesey has fixed Tuesday, April 23 as the date for the district convention at Auburn in which two delegates will be chosen to represent the Twelfth district in the republican national convention at Chicago.

This gathering promises to be the hottest early campaign fight this district has ever seen, for the Roosevelt adherents are organizing to prevent the election of any delegate who is not first, last and all the time for the colonel. Just as determined, on the other hand, are the Taft forces, who insist that the president is entitled to endorsement—and, anyhow, they haven't any sort of use for Mr. Roosevelt in the presidential chair.

Most of the men who have been casually mentioned as possibilities for delegates to the national convention are hedging upon the proposition of instructions and some of them have gone to the length of declaring that if the district is going to send its delegates to Chicago with their hands tied, they do not want the job. Mr. Willennar, of Auburn, who could probably have one of the places if he wants it, is one of the men who is opposing the instruction of delegates. W. M. Griffin, of Fort Wayne, and L. N. Litman, of Lagrange, are two others who have been considered.

Recently Mr. Litman has been showing a disposition to climb into the Roosevelt band wagon, and if he does, he will have the Taft crowd on his back in a minute. He was one member of a coterie of prominent republicans who were in conference in this city yesterday afternoon discussing plans for the meeting of the Roosevelt adherents in this city Friday to elect a district chairman. The Roosevelt followers are predicting that this meeting on Friday will be a surprise to some of the administration forces, and that it will establish beyond question of doubt the contention that the Twelfth district republicans want Mr. Roosevelt and none other.

KNEW SOMETHING ABOUT IT

Modest Appearing Man Proved He Had Right to Criticise Youthful Art Student.

An art student was copying one of Abbott S. Thayer's paintings at the New York Metropolitan Museum of Art one day, when a plainly dressed man who looked as if he might be a mechanic approached and, posting himself at the young man's elbow, watched him as he labored over his subject.

"You've got the angle of the mouth wrong, and the left eye is too oblique," remarked the man decidedly.

The student blinked angrily and the hand that wilded the brush trembled slightly, but he took no notice of the unsolicited criticism.

"There is too much yellow in your flesh tint," continued the man.

"Still no reply from the student, who ostentatiously slapped on more yellow in the high light on the nose.

"Did you hear what I said?" questioned the man.

"Yes, I heard," responded the student wrathfully, turning and glaring at his modest looking critic. "What do you know about it, anyway?"

"I ought to know something about it," was the smiling response. "It was I who painted the picture."

Threw Wooden Shoes at Bride.

In the shower of missiles hurled after the wedded pair something struck the settlement worker with stinging force. "What on earth!" she exclaimed; then quickly added: "A wooden shoe! Who ever heard of throwing a wooden shoe at a bride?"

"Most everybody who has attended weddings in this part of town has heard of it," said the officiating curate. "It is the custom here to throw wooden shoes because at some time in her life nearly every bride has worn a pair. For the present generation they were not her Sunday shoes, nor her evening dress shoes, nor even her everyday street shoes, but around the house and maybe to the nearby shops in rainy weather she has clattered around often enough in wooden shoes to justify having a pair thrown at her for old time's sake."—Boston Herald.

FIRE DOG UNWELCOME GUEST

Even Boarding Him One Day in the Week Almost Gives Woman Nervous Prostration.

Ask any fireman's wife what day in the week she dreads most, and the chances are she will tell you the day the fire station dog takes his meals at her house, says the Philadelphia Times.

"Not that we don't like the dog," one woman said, "but because we have to be so careful about our cooking. The men at the station where my husband works are afraid to bring Barney up on restaurant food. They think he will thrive better on good home cooking, so they take turns at entertaining him.

"Wednesday is his day here. He comes for all three meals. It is a day of anxiety. If I make things too rich Bob swears I'll give Barney indigestion. If they aren't rich enough he will not be sufficiently nourished. I don't mind cooking for Bob nor for any amount of company, my mother-in-law included, but fixing things for Barney gets on my nerves."

Albino Puzzle.

The albino is still one of the puzzles of science. Beyond the knowledge that albinism is due to a lack of the normal pigment in skin and hair the physiologist and pathologist are about as much at sea regarding the real explanation of this freak of nature as they were a hundred or a thousand years ago. As to the ultimate why of the problem—why the pigment is missing in the albino—there is nothing but a collection of unconvincing guesses. Regarding the statistics of albinism nothing satisfactory is obtainable except in two countries. In Italy the albinos number about one in every twenty thousand of the population, whereas in Norway the rate is twice as high, with one in every ten thousand.

Carborundum in Furnaces.

Carborundum, the artificial substitute for emery, which is said to rival the diamond in hardness, is employed, because of its extraordinary resistance to heat, as a coating for the interior of furnaces. Finely powdered and made into a paste, it is applied with a brush, like paint, to the brick lining. It is said that a layer of only two millimeters in thickness will protect the bricks from the effects of the highest temperature that is produced in ordinary furnace combustion.

Carborundum is itself a product of the electric furnace, being composed of silica and carbon fused in the presence of salt and sawdust.—Harper's Weekly.

Simple and Forcible.

Sir Richard Jebb, the eminent physician, was a man of irritable temper, and when bored by the querulous complaints of some of his patients could not always force himself to return a civil answer. A troublesome patient, whose illness was purely imaginary, pestered him one day with questions as to what he should eat.

"My directions on that point," said Sir Richard, "will be few and simple. You must not eat the shovel, poker, or tongs, for they are hard of digestion; nor the bellows, for they are windy; but anything else you please!"

With the worry and care of building and assume the risks of inexperience when you can place the entire matter in the hands of the Wildwood Builders?

The average man who undertakes to superintend the building of a home is just as well qualified to do so as he would be to set a broken arm, not being a doctor, or to try to conduct a lawsuit, not being a lawyer.

Architecture and building constitutes a profession and requires building knowledge and experience. Even if you have the experience necessary, can you afford to spend the time and assume the responsibility when satisfactory results are assured by us at less cost?

DISTINCT VALUE OF PICTURES

Care in Selection and Hanging Will Be Well Repaid in Increased Pleasure Afforded.

"A room hung with pictures is a room hung with beautiful thoughts." How many of us give the right amount of careful thought in hanging pictures on our walls? Do we ever think of the pleasure and effect on ourselves of the paintings or prints that are constantly before our eyes?

"That chromo makes me wild," says one protesting esthetic woman, as she gazes on a relic of the barbarous age in art. It is a vividly colored print of a very old and very ugly Juliet leaning over the balcony in the arms of a Romeo who would not take a prize for anything except climbing up a vine. The walnut frame is old and matches the execrable "whatnot" of our mothers' time. The whole thing is unpleasant, badly drawn, badly colored and absolutely out of place, and yet it hangs on, simply because some dead aunt saw fit to give it at an anniversary!

Pictures should please. They should educate and elevate. They should be of the good painters. How rich is the treasure from which we can choose! How wonderful are the modern reproductions at ridiculously little cost!

Begin now to tear down the meaningless prints that speak nothing to you. Hang upon your walls restful, beautiful pictures that will have just as much effect, psychologically, on your nerves, your mind, your soul, as the companions of your hours.

PRETTY WIDOW GETS GEMS.

Jewelry Seized at Customs House Will Be Restored.

San Francisco, March 6.—Mrs. Elizabeth L. Boydstun, the pretty widow who arrived from the orient a month ago only to have her jewelry seized by Customs Inspector Head, can breath easily.

United States District Attorney Devlin, who had been asked by Chief Clerk Harry Farmer to pass on the matter, wrote that he had decided that the aims of justice for all concerned could be attained by restoring Mrs. Boydstun's jewelry. Now Mrs. Boydstun will have to pay duty on the rings and what not and the case will be closed.

Mrs. Boydstun arrived from the orient on the 13th of last month. At Honolulu en route to this city, she called at the office of Wells-Fargo & Co., and had her jewelry expressed to her in this city. The customs officials in some way received word of Mrs. Boydstun's action and upon her arrival in this city the jewelry was held pending an investigation.

Fifth of Samples in State Laboratory in Month Prove Illegal.

CONDEMN 12 PLACES

Indianapolis, March 6.—Approximately one-fifth of the specimens of food examined in the food and drug laboratories of the state board of health in February were found to be illegal, according to figures compiled by H. E. Barnard, chemist of the board. The total number of specimens examined was 249, and fifty-seven of those were pronounced in violation of the state statutes.

Samples of drugs were held to be in violaton of the statutes in more than one-half the instances in which examinations were made. Sixty-nine samples were examined and thirty-five were pronounced illegal. Twelve places of business were condemned during the month, five hotels and restaurants being classified as insanitary. One was improperly constructed.

Two Markets Condemned.

Two meat markets were condemned, both being classed as insanitary and improperly constructed. Two combination grocery and meat markets were placed under the ban of the state board for improper construction and insanitation. Two groceries and one bakery were declared insanitary.

Cough cures led the list in illegal drugs, twenty-two of the thirty-three specimens examined being combinations of products which the Indiana laws have declared against. Six specimens of face creams and lotions, all that were examined by Mr. Barnard's force, were declared illegal and condemned. Five samples of hair tonics examined showed three that were illegal.

Of ninety-four samples of milk examined, twenty-four were pronounced illegal and nine of nineteen samples of oysters submitted or seized for examination were declared illegal. Hamburger was declared unfit for use or adulterated in seven instances out of seventeen examinations. Of thirty-five samples of sausage examined but two specimens were condemned.

All Ice Cream Legal.

Four samples of canned fruit were condemned and two were declared legal. Much ice cream examined and all samples declared legal.

Mr. Barnard has completed an examination of crushed fruits and fruit syrups, prepared by a New York company which ships goods into Indiana. In all of the specimens examined formic acid is present in quantities ranging from 2 per cent to 3 per cent, thus making the products illegal in the state.

The presence of the acid in such substances is in violaton of the law even if the goods are labeled and all those examined were not labeled. Mr. Barnard said the officials of the company have admitted that they are using the preservative and an order against the sale of their products probably will go out at once.

The products of the company have been sold on the Hoosier market as pure for years, and although small quantities of them are shipped into the state, the injury to health probably has been great, the state official believes. The formic acid is entirely different from acetic acid, in that its presence may not be detected by taste.

Make War on Butter Frauds.

In prepared strawberries, the product was found in quantities of 2 per cent; in sliced pearhes, 23 per cent; in pineapples, 25 per cent, and in Morello cherries more than 3 per cent. The acid is one of the most active preservatives known, Mr. Barnard said.

War on renovated butter not properly labeled has been declared by the state board of health, and wholesale prosecutions are to follow if dealers do not comply with the law passed by the 1911 legislature, Mr. Barnard said. The statute provides that all such butter shall be marked as such with letters at least three-fourths of an inch in height on the sides of the packages. It likewise is illegal to deliver packages of such butter to customers without similar marks. The same rules apply to the sale of renovated butter as apply to the sale of oleomargarine, the state official said.

TIGHT SHOE COSTLY TO GIRL.

Injures a Foot and Gangrene Rapidly Begins Its Work.

Baltimore, March 6.—A tight shoe cost Miss Josephine Patton her right leg. About a month ago Miss Patton bought a pair of new shoes, which she wore for several days. A slight irritation on the little toe, which Miss Patton thought would wear off in a few days, developed into an ulceration. Then the foot began to swell and finally the leg swelled. Thoroughly alarmed, Miss Patton applied for treatment at the Mercy hospital, where the case was diagnosed as a gangrenous affection. The foot was opened and the wound sterilized, but it became more virulent and the physicians decided that immediate amputation was imperative. The leg was taken off just below the hip, care being taken to prevent the disease from spreading.

Doughnut Eaters on Bet Call for Doctors at 26 and 33.

San Rafael, Cal., March 6.—Because they engaged in a doughnut-eating contest, neither John Dollarp nor H. Ridgeway was able to do his work for the local electric light company here.

They got into an argument over their several capacities in the eating line and the contest was on.

Dollarp choked down thirty-three circles of fried dough with five cups of coffee, and Ridgeway gave up and signaled for a doctor and a stomach pump after he had stowed away twenty-six sinkers and four cups of coffee below his hatches.

GIRLS TO GOVERN SELVES.

Whitman College Students Reach Agreement With Faculty.

Walla Walla, Wash., March 6.—The girls of Reynolds Hall, the women's dormitory of Whitman college, will govern themselves by an agreement just reached between them and the college authorities. Neta Johnson has been chosen house chairman and four proctors, one from each class, will assist her. They are Charlotte McLeod, Margaret Martin, Hilda Anderson and Lou Hostetler.

The girls will have absolute control of the dormitory and it is hoped the experiment will do away with friction that has heretofore occasionally arisen between the dean of women and the residents of the dormitory.

LYRIC THEATER

The Lyric is showing some great pictures today and night. "The Yeggman," a Reliance, is a real thriller from start to finish. "The Arab's Bride" is a Tanhouser, the first picture made by them in Florida and it is very good. Vaudeville afternoon and evening. Thursday an Imp "The Call of the Drum," this is a dandy good picture and something new. Friday the great fire picture, "Making Heroes," will be the feature.

BARBERS USE "MOPS" TWICE.

Kansas Tonsorial Artists Run Afoul of State Health Regulations.

Emporia, Kan., March 6.—Fines of $25 each were made against thirty-five Emporia barbers from fourteen shops here. The complaints were issued upon evidence turned up by John Kleinhans, representative of the state board of health.

Every barber acknowledged the use of face towels, or "mops," on more than one customer, and only one shop had the rules of the health board posted. Some shops may be closed.
